

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS HERALD

VOLUME 1, NUMBER 5

Application Made for Entry as Second Class Matter at Post Office, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL., FRIDAY, NOV. 19, 1926

H. C. PADDOCK & SONS, Publishers
Arlington Heights, Illinois
SUBSCRIPTION — $2.50 A YEAR

Board of Local Improvements Has a Special Meeting

The Board of Local Improvements held a special meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 16 for the purpose of letting contracts for the water extension in the territory east to Harms Road in Glenview, Surrey and Lennox Road, Windsor, Wagner, Center and Golfview.

Bids were submitted by sixteen contracting firms, the contract being awarded the Merkle Construction Co., of Kansas City, Mo., the lowest bidder at the figure of $42,915.50; $47,926.00 being available for the improvement.

Competition in the local improvement in the village has never before been so keen.

Firms submitting bids and their figures follow: Earl Knight $47,579.50; N. Santucci $44,913; Krenn & Dato $46,745; W. McElligott & Co. $43,920; Hank & Birchauer $45,000; Anzello Cozzoni $45,782.50; Joseph Malloy $45,330; E. R. Harding Co. $47,897.50; J. L. Frye $47,455; Donato & Beneditto $43,027; Pastore-Dorsey & Lagrit Co. $43,947; Neil D. Anderson $45,740.50; D. J. Donovan $42,912.50; Cennel Conral Co. $47,987.50; T. Iglehart $46,973.50; Merkle Const. Co., $42,912.50.

The bids were opened at 8 p. m. at the school house and the contract covered special assessment Number 34.

Fathers and Sons Banquet Success

The Eagle's Club came into the social lime light last Wednesday night when they staged a second successful Father's and Son's Banquet.

The scene of the occasion was the Congregational church hall and members of the Ladies Aid furnished the feast aided by the Eagle's, mothers and sisters.

About one hundred men and their boys sat down to a feast of real eats as the boys said.

The program prepared was an interesting one including community singing led by Peter Benda of Chicago University. Richard Egan was toastmaster and Ralph Ewery presided at the piano as accompanist.

Mayor H. M. McCullen presented by Mr. Rugen as the first speaker landed the organization in its success as a socially athletic body and stressed the point of its aid in waking up the youth to their privileges and responsibilities of real citizenship.

Chief J. V. Wilkes talked on making a real pal of boys brought an invitation from the youngsters who have a real admiration and respect for "Glenview's Policeman" who praises Glenview's boys and makes an earnest attempt to teach by example of courtesy and respect.

Rev. Ivan Smith and E. Lester Stanton of the Congregational and Methodist churches addressed the gathering. Y. Su of Canton China gave an impressive talk of the youth of his country and their obligations of citizenship.

Clarence Calahan and H. B. Bohannon gave musical numbers.

This is the second banquet of its kind given by the association.

Glenview M. E. Church Notes

The church and Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. Bartling and Mrs. Stanton, are to give a Thanksgiving Pageant Sunday evening, Nov. 21, at 7:30 at the church. It has a message for you. At that service we will take up our annual Thanksgiving offering for the Italian Mission.

On Thanksgiving day at 8 a. m. at the Congregational church there will be a union service of worship and praise. The Rev. Mr. Smith, who cannot be with us, has asked our pastor, Mr. Stanton, to preach. The choir of the Congregational church will supply the special music. All of us will supply the congregation. "Enter into His gates with Thanksgiving and into His courts with Praise."

The Ladies Aid will not meet again until Dec. 2, at the home of Mrs. Bleam.

Watch for announcement of the dedication of the new parsonage.

Legion Changes Plans of Armistice Day Here

Plans made for Armistice day by the local post of the American Legion were altered when it was decided to change the size of the bronze tablet to be erected to the memory of Corporal Joseph M. Sesterhem at the Glenview school. Dedication ceremonies will be held some Sunday afternoon in the near future.

The dance given by the post in the evening at the school hall was well attended.

Considerable criticism has been made of the fact that this flag purchased by the business firms and Chamber of Commerce and cared for by the Legion was not on display Nov. 11. Members of the post sponsored the essay contest and sent speakers to the schools on Wednesday but the real significance of the day was apparently lost on the 11th.

In contrast to the observance given it at the New Trier high school that continued in session, that day and the attention paid to it in Chicago's busiest corner, Glenview seemed to have slipped relying upon the legion presumably to take charge of the ceremony.

It is nothing short of deplorable that a day of memorial significance should be remembered in a community with nothing but an evening festivity.

The association that sponsored the spirit of America forgot to call to the memory of Glenview's citizens thousands of boys who laid down their lives that "last day" by even raising the flag and sounding "taps."

Grand Master I. O. O. F. Is Speaker at Meeting of Northbrook Lodge

Northbrook Odd Fellows Lodge was honored at its last meeting with the presence of the Grand Master of Illinois, Brother Arthur Nauman. No one knew of his coming, so it was altogether a surprise visit. Fortunately the attendance was above the average, for recent meetings. In his address he made known the intensive program he has initiated for the year of his administration, and gave the members an intimate knowledge of the efforts that are exerted on the part of the Grand Lodge in promoting the practical policies of friendship, love and truth. The administration of the orphans home at Lincoln, and the old folks home at Mattoon was dealt with. One of his endeavors is to increase the endowment funds of these homes by one hundred thousand dollars the coming year, which will go far to make the homes self sustaining and eventually relieve the members of the $1 per year tax for that purpose. For this small sum Odd Fellows are taking care of 200 aged people and 200 orphans, in a way and under provisions that are hard to be excelled, for their happiness, and comfort, and education. The outstanding measures for relief at the present time, he told, is in behalf of the victims in the flood areas of Illinois. Many homes have been made destitute, more than are generally known, families have lost their entire year's production and need help until the next year's crops and labor can be realized on. His address was impressive and well received. Another welcome visitor was Brother Chas. Boden, formerly of this village and now an Indiana Odd Fellow.

The lodge has accepted an invitation to confer the initiatory degree at North Shore Lodge, Chicago, Nov. 26.

Thanksgiving Holiday Will be Observed by Newspaper Employees

Thanksgiving occurs next week. Strange as it may seem, printers enjoy turkey as well as other folks. In order to give them an opportunity to eat it with their families, all editions of this paper will be published one day earlier next week. Advertisers and reporters are asked to help by sending their news items to us earlier than usual.

Death Calls Mrs. Jennie Snowden Cole of Glenview

Death called Mrs. Jennie Snowden Cole at her home on Sherman Ave., Tues., Nov. 16.

Mrs. Cole had been a resident of Glenview for more than the past 20 years, when her husband the late James P. Cole moved with his family from Chicago to their present residence on Sherman Ave. at the north end of Glenview road.

Mr. Cole who was Justice of the Peace of Northfield died suddenly December 12, 1916.

Following his death Mrs. Cole who had been operated upon for cataract of the eye began to fail physically because of her impaired vision and for several years had been nearly totally blind.

Her general health became poorer so that for the past two years she has been a confirmed invalid, confined to her room in the care of her daughter, Miss Jennie Cole and the wife of her son, Judge C. S. Cole.

Her remarkable vitality was a source of wonder to her family and physicians Dr. J. B. S. King who thought many times within the year that the end was at hand.

Memorial services were held on Thursday afternoon at Immanuel Church of New Jerusalem, the Park of which Mrs. Cole was a devoted member, the Rev. Gilbert N. Smith officiating. Burial was at Ridge-wood cemetery.

Jennie Snowden was a native of Sheffield, England, born March 25, 1852, the daughter of Isaac and Sarah Snowden. She came to America in 1873.

Three years later, July 4, 1876, the year of the centennial celebration. She was married to James Pennington Cole at the Cole home at Southfield, N. Y.

Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Cole, five of whom survive their parents.

The oldest daughter, Bessie Louise, died in Chicago prior to the family's removal to Glenview. Louis-S. Charles S., and Jennie S., reside here.

Dorothy Maud, who became the wife of Louis King in 1912 lives with her family in Colorado Springs and Robert McFarlane, the youngest son lives with his family in Sandusky, Ohio.

A pleasant thing happened in smoky Chicago last week. A thief was blown up by the bomb he was placing at the home of a man he wanted to rob.

Turkeys facing the ax around Thanksgiving might get some satisfaction out of knowing that a lot of politicians got it earlier in the month.

It is said the first play to be produced in North America was staged at Port Royal, Nova Scotia, in 1606; and no doubt it will astonish many to know it was not "Abie's Irish Rose."

A man in Delaware was recently arrested for painting on "Sunday. But what about the women who paint on Sunday? Shouldn't they be arrested too?

It is not half a century since bathing was forbidden by law in some vicinities. The first bathtub had been invented eight years before they dared install one in our White House.

The Wichita, Kansas, Beacon reports that three fashionable girls in that city wore skirts to their ankles at a big party last week.

In one of the southern states the judges are showing increasing tendency toward having the courts over which they preside to open with prayer.

Eagle picks radiator cap as a lighting point: A live eagle lighted on the radiator cap of Dr. O. L. McHaffie's automobile, parked in front of his home in Duluth. The bird was captured by the use of a blanket and presented to the Duluth zoo.

Announcement is made by the western division of the Editorial department of the Youth's Companion in Chicago that the venerable weekly for boys and girls was one hundred years old Nov. 9, 1926.

Miss Suzanne Lenglen has been promised $100,000 for playing tennis in America, but she will probably have to raise a racket and go to the courts before realizing any net profits.

GOD AND MAN

God is a kind Father. He sets us all in the places where He wishes us to be employed; and that employment is truly "Our Father's business." He chooses work for every creature which will be delightful to them, if they do it simply and humbly. He gives us always strength enough and sense enough for what He wants us to do; if we either tire ourselves or puzzle ourselves it is our own fault. And we may always be sure what we are doing, that we cannot be pleasing Him if we are not happy ourselves.

Thanking you for your favor and wishing your paper success for the coming year, I remain, Yours truly, Geo. C. Wilson.

To the Friends of Orchard Place School:

On Tuesday, November 23, 1926, the Achievement Club members will hold their regular public meeting and entertainment, which will include among the many things good speakers, singing, dialogues, and recitations. The talent is picked from the club members. "Nough said. Be there. We will make it worth your while.

Yours, THE COMMITTEE.

Nov. 10 to 15 was an unpleasant week for wild pheasants. In the first place the snow and frost made it difficult to get food and second the hunters were hot on their track. The Chinese pheasant is the variety most common here and being nearly the color of dry vegetation and swift of foot and on the wing, he is a difficult target to hit. After roaming about in comparative safety all summer it must be very alarming to be jarred out of a peaceful existence by the bang of shot guns and stinging shot. Some of our local hunters who have bagged pheasants are Wm. Berkow and Harold Klehm.

Mrs. John Jarmuth will have a quilting party at her home Friday, Nov. 19.

Mrs. Sophie Stielow, Mrs. Sophie Kindt and Mrs. George Klehm attended a fancy goods sale given Wednesday, by the Ladies Aid of a Chicago church on Diversy St.

George Kuester had a birthday celebration at his home Saturday night and the young folks attending had a very nice time.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

It was not Fred Schroeder of Dundee, as reported last week, but his uncle who was critically ill.

The Elite Shop has nice new things on display. You'll find it easy to do some of your Christmas shopping here. First come, first choice.

A. L. Klehm visited Miss Cora Schultz, Nov. 11. During the winter Miss Schultz and her mother closer their Palatine home and make their home in Des Plaines with Mrs. Wm. Smyser.

Former pupils and acquaintances of Mrs. Agnes Wiess Humburg will be interested to know that she has a kindergarten of her own now. But there is only one in the class, little Frank Robert Humburg and he came Sept. 27. Having mislaid the announcement card we are a little late in telling you about it.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

Mrs. and Mrs. Earl Cady (nee Mueller) are building a bungalow on Elm street on the lot that joins the rear of lot where her uncle and sister live. They expect to move out from Chicago soon.

St. Paul's Ladies Aid held their monthly meeting in the church parlors, Sunday, Nov. 21.

The "Kaffee-Krauchen" given by St. Paul's Ladies Aid was a very interesting and enjoyable affair it was well attended by members and many friends from the neighborhood. Delicious cake sandwiches and coffee was served.

One of the most enjoyable features was the prize and musical program. Mrs. P. Biederstadt favored us with 2 very fine songs, Mrs. H. Koll of Sanganen accompanied her on the piano, they all enjoyed the little entertainers.

The meeting Sunday of the owners of lots in St. Paul's cemetery was well attended. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter farther and report to the lot owners as soon as possible.

Members of St. Paul's Walther League attended the League rally at Waukegan Sunday, Nov. 14.

Mrs. August Detzer of Ft. Wayne is the guest of Mrs. P. Biederstadt.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Detzer and Miss Fromhold attended a dinner party Nov. 14, given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plambeck in Chicago.

Thanksgiving service St. Paul's 10 o'clock a. m. instead of evening.

Niles Center city collector will mail $5,000 special assessment bills Dec. 1, aggregating about $160,000 all special assessments are due on Jan. 1. After that date interest at 6 per cent will be added for every 15 days that elapse before bill is paid.

Niles Center Firemen will hold a grand dance in Alf's hall, Dec. 1, to raise funds to purchase 1000 feet of new hose, rubber coats, boots, and other equipment needed. They expect the new fire truck fully equipped to throw 1,000 gallons of water a minute. This machine costs Niles Center over $13,000.

Pleased With Home Paper

River Grove, Ill., Nov. 12, 1926. H. C. Paddock & Sons, Arlington Heights, Ill.

Dear Sir: I have paid my subscription to the Cook County Herald, and am at present receiving my copy regularly at Box 206, River Grove, Ill. I am pleased with the Herald and desire that you forward my copy to R. F. D. 4, Box 42 at Manchester, Tenn., where I will reside with my parents this winter. If you will do this, you may count on me for a renewal when I return.

Thanking you for your favor and wishing your paper success for the coming year, I remain, Yours truly, Geo. C. Wilson.

To the Friends of Orchard Place School:

On Tuesday, November 23, 1926, the Achievement Club members will hold their regular public meeting and entertainment, which will include among the many things good speakers, singing, dialogues, and recitations. The talent is picked from the club members. "Nough said. Be there. We will make it worth your while.

Yours, THE COMMITTEE.

Nov. 10 to 15 was an unpleasant week for wild pheasants. In the first place the snow and frost made it difficult to get food and second the hunters were hot on their track. The Chinese pheasant is the variety most common here and being nearly the color of dry vegetation and swift of foot and on the wing, he is a difficult target to hit. After roaming about in comparative safety all summer it must be very alarming to be jarred out of a peaceful existence by the bang of shot guns and stinging shot. Some of our local hunters who have bagged pheasants are Wm. Berkow and Harold Klehm.

Mrs. John Jarmuth will have a quilting party at her home Friday, Nov. 19.

Mrs. Sophie Stielow, Mrs. Sophie Kindt and Mrs. George Klehm attended a fancy goods sale given Wednesday, by the Ladies Aid of a Chicago church on Diversy St.

George Kuester had a birthday celebration at his home Saturday night and the young folks attending had a very nice time.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

It was not Fred Schroeder of Dundee, as reported last week, but his uncle who was critically ill.

The Elite Shop has nice new things on display. You'll find it easy to do some of your Christmas shopping here. First come, first choice.

A. L. Klehm visited Miss Cora Schultz, Nov. 11. During the winter Miss Schultz and her mother closer their Palatine home and make their home in Des Plaines with Mrs. Wm. Smyser.

Former pupils and acquaintances of Mrs. Agnes Wiess Humburg will be interested to know that she has a kindergarten of her own now. But there is only one in the class, little Frank Robert Humburg and he came Sept. 27. Having mislaid the announcement card we are a little late in telling you about it.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

Mrs. and Mrs. Earl Cady (nee Mueller) are building a bungalow on Elm street on the lot that joins the rear of lot where her uncle and sister live. They expect to move out from Chicago soon.

St. Paul's Ladies Aid held their monthly meeting in the church parlors, Sunday, Nov. 21.

The "Kaffee-Krauchen" given by St. Paul's Ladies Aid was a very interesting and enjoyable affair it was well attended by members and many friends from the neighborhood. Delicious cake sandwiches and coffee was served.

One of the most enjoyable features was the prize and musical program. Mrs. P. Biederstadt favored us with 2 very fine songs, Mrs. H. Koll of Sanganen accompanied her on the piano, they all enjoyed the little entertainers.

The meeting Sunday of the owners of lots in St. Paul's cemetery was well attended. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter farther and report to the lot owners as soon as possible.

Members of St. Paul's Walther League attended the League rally at Waukegan Sunday, Nov. 14.

Mrs. August Detzer of Ft. Wayne is the guest of Mrs. P. Biederstadt.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Detzer and Miss Fromhold attended a dinner party Nov. 14, given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plambeck in Chicago.

Thanksgiving service St. Paul's 10 o'clock a. m. instead of evening.

Niles Center city collector will mail $5,000 special assessment bills Dec. 1, aggregating about $160,000 all special assessments are due on Jan. 1. After that date interest at 6 per cent will be added for every 15 days that elapse before bill is paid.

Niles Center Firemen will hold a grand dance in Alf's hall, Dec. 1, to raise funds to purchase 1000 feet of new hose, rubber coats, boots, and other equipment needed. They expect the new fire truck fully equipped to throw 1,000 gallons of water a minute. This machine costs Niles Center over $13,000.

Pleased With Home Paper

River Grove, Ill., Nov. 12, 1926. H. C. Paddock & Sons, Arlington Heights, Ill.

Dear Sir: I have paid my subscription to the Cook County Herald, and am at present receiving my copy regularly at Box 206, River Grove, Ill. I am pleased with the Herald and desire that you forward my copy to R. F. D. 4, Box 42 at Manchester, Tenn., where I will reside with my parents this winter. If you will do this, you may count on me for a renewal when I return.

Thanking you for your favor and wishing your paper success for the coming year, I remain, Yours truly, Geo. C. Wilson.

To the Friends of Orchard Place School:

On Tuesday, November 23, 1926, the Achievement Club members will hold their regular public meeting and entertainment, which will include among the many things good speakers, singing, dialogues, and recitations. The talent is picked from the club members. "Nough said. Be there. We will make it worth your while.

Yours, THE COMMITTEE.

Nov. 10 to 15 was an unpleasant week for wild pheasants. In the first place the snow and frost made it difficult to get food and second the hunters were hot on their track. The Chinese pheasant is the variety most common here and being nearly the color of dry vegetation and swift of foot and on the wing, he is a difficult target to hit. After roaming about in comparative safety all summer it must be very alarming to be jarred out of a peaceful existence by the bang of shot guns and stinging shot. Some of our local hunters who have bagged pheasants are Wm. Berkow and Harold Klehm.

Mrs. John Jarmuth will have a quilting party at her home Friday, Nov. 19.

Mrs. Sophie Stielow, Mrs. Sophie Kindt and Mrs. George Klehm attended a fancy goods sale given Wednesday, by the Ladies Aid of a Chicago church on Diversy St.

George Kuester had a birthday celebration at his home Saturday night and the young folks attending had a very nice time.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

It was not Fred Schroeder of Dundee, as reported last week, but his uncle who was critically ill.

The Elite Shop has nice new things on display. You'll find it easy to do some of your Christmas shopping here. First come, first choice.

A. L. Klehm visited Miss Cora Schultz, Nov. 11. During the winter Miss Schultz and her mother closer their Palatine home and make their home in Des Plaines with Mrs. Wm. Smyser.

Former pupils and acquaintances of Mrs. Agnes Wiess Humburg will be interested to know that she has a kindergarten of her own now. But there is only one in the class, little Frank Robert Humburg and he came Sept. 27. Having mislaid the announcement card we are a little late in telling you about it.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

Mrs. and Mrs. Earl Cady (nee Mueller) are building a bungalow on Elm street on the lot that joins the rear of lot where her uncle and sister live. They expect to move out from Chicago soon.

St. Paul's Ladies Aid held their monthly meeting in the church parlors, Sunday, Nov. 21.

The "Kaffee-Krauchen" given by St. Paul's Ladies Aid was a very interesting and enjoyable affair it was well attended by members and many friends from the neighborhood. Delicious cake sandwiches and coffee was served.

One of the most enjoyable features was the prize and musical program. Mrs. P. Biederstadt favored us with 2 very fine songs, Mrs. H. Koll of Sanganen accompanied her on the piano, they all enjoyed the little entertainers.

The meeting Sunday of the owners of lots in St. Paul's cemetery was well attended. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter farther and report to the lot owners as soon as possible.

Members of St. Paul's Walther League attended the League rally at Waukegan Sunday, Nov. 14.

Mrs. August Detzer of Ft. Wayne is the guest of Mrs. P. Biederstadt.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Detzer and Miss Fromhold attended a dinner party Nov. 14, given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plambeck in Chicago.

Thanksgiving service St. Paul's 10 o'clock a. m. instead of evening.

Niles Center city collector will mail $5,000 special assessment bills Dec. 1, aggregating about $160,000 all special assessments are due on Jan. 1. After that date interest at 6 per cent will be added for every 15 days that elapse before bill is paid.

Niles Center Firemen will hold a grand dance in Alf's hall, Dec. 1, to raise funds to purchase 1000 feet of new hose, rubber coats, boots, and other equipment needed. They expect the new fire truck fully equipped to throw 1,000 gallons of water a minute. This machine costs Niles Center over $13,000.

Pleased With Home Paper

River Grove, Ill., Nov. 12, 1926. H. C. Paddock & Sons, Arlington Heights, Ill.

Dear Sir: I have paid my subscription to the Cook County Herald, and am at present receiving my copy regularly at Box 206, River Grove, Ill. I am pleased with the Herald and desire that you forward my copy to R. F. D. 4, Box 42 at Manchester, Tenn., where I will reside with my parents this winter. If you will do this, you may count on me for a renewal when I return.

Thanking you for your favor and wishing your paper success for the coming year, I remain, Yours truly, Geo. C. Wilson.

To the Friends of Orchard Place School:

On Tuesday, November 23, 1926, the Achievement Club members will hold their regular public meeting and entertainment, which will include among the many things good speakers, singing, dialogues, and recitations. The talent is picked from the club members. "Nough said. Be there. We will make it worth your while.

Yours, THE COMMITTEE.

Nov. 10 to 15 was an unpleasant week for wild pheasants. In the first place the snow and frost made it difficult to get food and second the hunters were hot on their track. The Chinese pheasant is the variety most common here and being nearly the color of dry vegetation and swift of foot and on the wing, he is a difficult target to hit. After roaming about in comparative safety all summer it must be very alarming to be jarred out of a peaceful existence by the bang of shot guns and stinging shot. Some of our local hunters who have bagged pheasants are Wm. Berkow and Harold Klehm.

Mrs. John Jarmuth will have a quilting party at her home Friday, Nov. 19.

Mrs. Sophie Stielow, Mrs. Sophie Kindt and Mrs. George Klehm attended a fancy goods sale given Wednesday, by the Ladies Aid of a Chicago church on Diversy St.

George Kuester had a birthday celebration at his home Saturday night and the young folks attending had a very nice time.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

It was not Fred Schroeder of Dundee, as reported last week, but his uncle who was critically ill.

The Elite Shop has nice new things on display. You'll find it easy to do some of your Christmas shopping here. First come, first choice.

A. L. Klehm visited Miss Cora Schultz, Nov. 11. During the winter Miss Schultz and her mother closer their Palatine home and make their home in Des Plaines with Mrs. Wm. Smyser.

Former pupils and acquaintances of Mrs. Agnes Wiess Humburg will be interested to know that she has a kindergarten of her own now. But there is only one in the class, little Frank Robert Humburg and he came Sept. 27. Having mislaid the announcement card we are a little late in telling you about it.

Mrs. Jeanette Remke entertained the church club Thursday, Nov. 11.

Mrs. and Mrs. Earl Cady (nee Mueller) are building a bungalow on Elm street on the lot that joins the rear of lot where her uncle and sister live. They expect to move out from Chicago soon.

St. Paul's Ladies Aid held their monthly meeting in the church parlors, Sunday, Nov. 21.

The "Kaffee-Krauchen" given by St. Paul's Ladies Aid was a very interesting and enjoyable affair it was well attended by members and many friends from the neighborhood. Delicious cake sandwiches and coffee was served.

One of the most enjoyable features was the prize and musical program. Mrs. P. Biederstadt favored us with 2 very fine songs, Mrs. H. Koll of Sanganen accompanied her on the piano, they all enjoyed the little entertainers.

The meeting Sunday of the owners of lots in St. Paul's cemetery was well attended. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter farther and report to the lot owners as soon as possible.

Members of St. Paul's Walther League attended the League rally at Waukegan Sunday, Nov. 14.

Mrs. August Detzer of Ft. Wayne is the guest of Mrs. P. Biederstadt.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Detzer and

LOOK AND LEARN

- About how many miles wide is the known universe as revealed by telescope and camera?
- What state once declared that it might annul the laws of Congress?
- What little plants are agents of the process known as fermentation and decay?
- What Persian king gathered together the largest army ever assembled in ancient times, for the purpose of subdividing Greece?
- What is the Decameron?
- What was the total number of men who lost their lives in the World War?
- What president of the U. S. died at the oldest age?
- How far does the earth travel in its orbit in one day?
- What flower is symbolic of November?
- What country is supported by gambling?
- How many yards are there in one rod?
- What city of the U. S. is known as the "City of Churches?"
- Who was by far the greatest king of Israel?
- Who is the presiding officer of the senate?
- In what English city are twenty million steel pens made every week?
- What tree sends its branches down into the ground, thus forming new trunks?
- How many bones are there in the leg?
- By whom was President Garfield shot?
- What planet, with its system of rings, is conceded to be one of the most superb objects in the heavens?
- In what century were watches first constructed?
- What nations were the central powers in the World War?
- From what country do the best figs come?
- What is a pontoon bridge?
- What insect is so called because of its antennae or horns?
- How far can a powerful searchlight send its rays?
- What four venomous snakes are found in the United States?
- What state is called the "Cotton State?"
- How many barrels make a hoghead?
- Who invented the air-brake?
- What island, next to Greenland, is the largest in the world?

ANSWERS

- 2,000,000,000,000 miles (2,000,000,000,000,000,000.)
- South Carolina.
- Bacteria.
- Xerxes I.
- A collection of Italian tales purporting to be told by ten persons and written by Boccaccio.
- 9,998,771 men.
- John Adams at the age of 90.
- Approximately 1,512,000 miles.
- The chrysanthemum.
- The principality of Monaco, of which Monte Carlo is the capital.
- 5 1/2 yards.
- Brooklyn, N. Y.
- David.
- The vice president.
- Birmingham, England.
- The Banyan or Baobab, a tree of India.
- Thirty, counting the knee pan.
- Charles Jules Guiteau.
- Satur.
- The fifteenth century.
- Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, and Bulgaria.
- Turkey.
- Boats connected and stretched across a lake or stream to furnish a temporary bridge for the passage of an army.
- The hornet.
- Searchlights have recently been made capable of being at a distance of almost one hundred miles.
- Rattlesnake, water moccasin, copperhead, and the sonora or harlequin snake.
- Alabama.
- Two barrels.
- George Westinghouse.
- New Guinea, an island in the East Indies.

WINDY WULF SAYS:

Hang on to the work that you enjoy doing even though the pay is small; twice the income at disagreeable work won't make you half as happy.

If you can whistle cheerfully early in the morning, you're a wonder—especially if you can do it while you are brushing your teeth.

The boyish hob is increasing in favor. We men will have to grow mustaches to keep other men from flirting with us on the beaches next summer.

Isn't it rather unfair to say that man descended directly from the ape without giving some credit to the parrot?

A scientist says we retain the same brain cells we had in infancy. That explains a good deal.

They say that a single oyster will lay from one to eight million eggs a year. Gosh! Think of the married ones!

Fairy story—A young married man went home one evening and said to his wife: "My, but that is a becoming new dress you have on!" And it really was a new one.

Seventy-eight Illinoisans will sail from New Orleans February 3, 1927, for a 3,500 mile cruise which will take them to Havana, Kingston, Colombia, Canal Zone and Costa Rica. The S. S. Cartago has been chartered and the cruise, in essence a trade trip, will be under the auspices of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce. Well known business men from all over the state, a number of them taking their wives, will join the party. The ship will be out on "blue water" for twenty-one days.

The DOOM TRAIL

By Arthur D. Howden Smith
Author of PORTO BELLO GOLD, Etc.

(© by Brentano's.) WNU Service

THE STORY

CHAPTER I.—Harry, Ormerod, proprietor of a King George as a Stuart partisan, returning from France to London, rescues Alder from the clutches of a band of assassins. Alder proves to be the grandson of a former steward of Ormerod's father, to whom Alder feels himself indebted. Ormerod tells Alder that he has abandoned the Stuart cause.

CHAPTER II.—Juggins tells Ormerod of a Jacobite plot in the American colonies to weaken England by forwarding French interests. Their aim is the return of King James to the English throne. At his head is an Andrew Murray, a Scotchman, and a Frenchman, De Veulle, deadly enemy of Ormerod. The two are in London furthering their schemes. Ormerod sees the letters to Governor Burnett, a friend of Juggins, and work to foil Murray. Ormerod's daughter, a Frenchman, is a Jacobite. De Veulle recognizes him and their enmity flares. The Frenchman denounces Ormerod to the king as a traitor to the Stuart cause. Believing him, she repudiates Ormerod's proffer of friendship. He is thrown into the sea by an unseen assailant.

One day followed another and one week ran into the next as the New Venture made her southing and bore toward the New world. We who shared the tiny quarters under the poop contrived to live together without further quarrels. The girl—I called her Marjory in my thoughts—ignored my existence. She spent much of her time with De Veulle, walking the deck with him, reading or playing at cards. I liked to think she did it to provoke me.

With Murray my relations were outwardly friendly. He liked much to talk, and indeed he demonstrated considerable consideration for the great men of his period. But he never dropped a hint concerning the enterprise in which he was now engaged. Nor for that matter did he refer to the enmity between us or the bargain we had made until the day we sailed through the Narrows, the entrance to New York's inner harbor.

"We part for a time," Master Ormerod, he said, coming upon me when I leaped on the railing in the waist of the ship. "Our true expiaries when we disembark."

"That is true," I assented.

"There is somewhat I would venture to observe upon, if you will permit me," he continued detachedly. "You are a youth of boldness and courage. You possess intelligence. You may go far in the provinces, always supposing you do not succeed in winning a pardon. I opine that a pardon might be won if you went about it in the right way. There are gentlemen at Whitehall who—"

His hesitation was eloquent. "And you would suggest?" I asked him, faintly amused as I perceived the drift of his intention.

"Think well before you commit yourself to this venture. You can, not hope to overcome me. Why, the Governor of the province, with all the semi-regal powers at his command, has failed to balk me in my plans. My influence is no less in London. If you continue as you have begun you will end, I fear, in an early grave. I say it not as a threat. 'Tis merely a prediction."

"I fear me I should lose your good opinion did I take your advice," I replied.

He looked me straight in the eye. "You would," he said curtly, and turned on his heel.

Three hours later we lay at anchor in the East river under the lee of Nutton Island, which some called the Governor's because it was a part of his official estate. Small boats landed us at a wharf on a canal which ran up into the town along the middle of Broad street. From here I had my baggage carried by a waterman to the George tavern in Queen street, which he recommended as being favored by the gentry.

arrived.

"'Tis a frontiersman," he replied reluctantly; "one called 'Red Jack' Bolling."

"An ugly knave," I commented.

But the citizen only eyed me askance, and I walked on. I was passing through Bridge street, with the leading tree-boughs overhead and the walls of Fort George before me, when another and smaller crowd rounded the corner from the Broad-Way, a street which formed the principal thoroughfare of the town and took its name from the wide space between the house-

In the lead came an Indian. He was the first of his race I chanced to see, and sure, 'tis strange that we were destined to be friends—aye, more than friends, brethren of the same clan. He was a large man, six feet in his moccasins, and of about the same age as myself. He stalked along, arms swinging easily at his side, wholly impervious to the rabble of small boys who tagged behind, yelling and shrieking at him.

He was naked from the waist up, and on his massive chest was painted in yellow and red pigments the head of a wolf. He wore no other paint, and he was weaponless, except for the tomahawk and knife which hung at his belt.

The children danced around him so many little animals. They never touched him, but some of the more venturesome hurled pebbles from the walk at his brawny shoulders. I cannot repeat the catcalls and rhymes which they employed, some of them too disgusting to print.

I looked to see some citizen intervene, but several who sat on their doorsteps or lounged in front of shops, smoking the inevitable pipe, viewed the spectacle with indifference or open amusement.

My wrath boiled over, and I charged down upon his tormentors. "Be off," I shouted. "Have you no proper play to occupy your time?"

They fled hilariously, pleased rather than outraged by the attack, after the perverse habit of children who prefer always to be noticed instead of ignored, and I was proceeding on my way when I was dumfounded by hearing the Indian address me.

"Hold, brother," he said in perfect English, but with a certain thick guttural accent. "Taw-nears would thank you."

"You speak English?" I exclaimed.

A light of amusement gleamed in his eyes, although his face remained expressionless as a mask. "You do not think of the Indian as these ignorant little ones do?" he asked curiously.

"I—I know nothing of your people," I stammered. "I am but this day landed here."

"My brother is an Englishman?" he questioned, not idly, but with the courteous interest of a gentleman.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

"I helped you," I said, "because you were a stranger in a strange city, and by the laws of hospitality, your comfort should be assured."

"That is the law of the Indian, Englishman," he answered pleasantly.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

"I helped you," I said, "because you were a stranger in a strange city, and by the laws of hospitality, your comfort should be assured."

"That is the law of the Indian, Englishman," he answered pleasantly.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

"I helped you," I said, "because you were a stranger in a strange city, and by the laws of hospitality, your comfort should be assured."

"That is the law of the Indian, Englishman," he answered pleasantly.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

"I helped you," I said, "because you were a stranger in a strange city, and by the laws of hospitality, your comfort should be assured."

"That is the law of the Indian, Englishman," he answered pleasantly.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

"I helped you," I said, "because you were a stranger in a strange city, and by the laws of hospitality, your comfort should be assured."

"That is the law of the Indian, Englishman," he answered pleasantly.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

"I helped you," I said, "because you were a stranger in a strange city, and by the laws of hospitality, your comfort should be assured."

"That is the law of the Indian, Englishman," he answered pleasantly.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

"I helped you," I said, "because you were a stranger in a strange city, and by the laws of hospitality, your comfort should be assured."

"That is the law of the Indian, Englishman," he answered pleasantly.

"I am."

"Taw-nears thanks you, Englishman." He extended his hand.

"Your kindness was the greater because you obeyed it by instinct."

I regarded him with increasing amazement. Who was this savage who talked like a London courtier?

Celebrate 15th Year of Organization of Wide-Awake Camp

There is surely something in a name and Bensenville R. N. A. Camp 7197 demonstrated the fact Friday night at Social Hall when "Wide Awake" which is the name of the camp, celebrated the fifteenth year of the Bensenville camp's existence. And they sure did things right. From the time the entertainment started till midnight, when it was decided that it was time for all to start for home singing, whistling or humming, "I Had a Wonderful Time," it was one scream after another.

McConnell of the McConnell Cotton Works was there with tissue paper, hats, caps, flowers, flags of all colors, parasols and many other articles to be used in entertaining the happy dancers. No wall flowers, no bashful men or timid ladies present as everybody had to get into the game and help make everybody else happy while everybody else was doing their best to make them the same. The abundance of favors scattered by the entertainer put pep into the entertainment such as few present had ever witnessed.

Everybody met and danced with everybody and after all were too tired to go any further the entire audience marched to the basement dining room where the committee (who were also Wide-Awake) had a tempting lunch spread. Enough for all and all enjoyed that feature of the evening's program as well. The music for the entire evening was furnished by Mr. E. Kolze who played all the old and new tunes on his Concertina. Many old-fashioned steps were tripped off by the older people and the younger set also fell in line with it many times. As we said at first "There Is Something in A Name" for "Wide A Wake" camp gave a "Wide Awake" party in this "Wide Awake" town last Friday evening and if any committee ever deserved a vote of thanks the one that arranged that party was it for sure.

FARMERS ATTENTION
Special prices on front and hind quarters of beef. Native steer, trimmed flanks for Rinderwurst, 15c lb., also round and straight casings for sausage. Economy Cash Market, Roselle, Ill., Phone 86.

Having made a dismal failure of getting ladies to use more cotton to take care of the big surplus, it might be suggested that a movement be started to induce the men to double their orders for all-wool suits.

The mocking-birds have been trilling and trilling beautifully this Fall, and the cats have been less hideously tuneless at night. Keep the cats scarce and the song birds will become more plentiful still in this paradise for birds.

STOP AND SHOP at the Herald office. Delight your friends with a year's subscription to your local paper for Christmas.

Illinois Colleges In Music Survey

Musical training in colleges is 100 percent more popular today than it was ten years ago.

Approximately one half of all college student leaders, class presidents, and outstanding students play some sort of a musical instrument.

Band and orchestra work is now included in the curriculum of two-fifths of the American colleges and universities.

These are some of the high lights of a survey on college music just completed by the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Indiana. Northwestern university; Knox college, Galesburg; Bradley Polytechnic institute, Peoria; Eureka college; St. Procopius college, at Lisle; Loyola university; De Paul university; the Armour institute of technology; Lombard college, are the eleven Illinois institutions of higher learning who contribute to the survey. Close to 200 colleges furnished the information upon which the results of the survey are based.

Music has become an indispensable

part of college life in the opinion of presidents and heads of music departments in the institutions who answered the survey. It is not only of inestimable value to the college itself, but to the student who takes an active part in it.

Great stress is laid by college heads on the benefits of musical training in character building, the survey reveals. Fully one-fifth of the college executives who contributed to the survey considered this the best argument for music. Others mentioned the social and cultural advantage accruing to the music as an aid toward developing clear thinking, music on the campus as a help in getting many youths through school. All but three of the colleges find their musically trained students more efficient in their studies than those in not so trained.

"Honing one's way through college" compares very favorably with other methods of self-improvement through the college years, according to the college executives. Despite the comparatively limited opportunities offered in the average college town, fully one-fourth of all the students playing in the college bands and orchestras are earnings range all the way from board and room, two dollars an hour tuition fee, and up to two thousand dollars a year. Twelve percent of the college executives in the survey are of the opinion that playing one's way through school pays better than other means, another twelve percent thought it offered an easier way to make one's way through, while a goodly number of others said it interfered least with the students' school work, adding that this work also brings them in contact with worth while people who can help them get started.

Among those playing their way through college, the violin comes first in the preference of instruments. The saxophone is second choice of college players, but seventh with girl musicians. Piano is the second favorite instrument with the girls, and third with the preference of both the young men and women. Organ is the next favorite with the boys, and the flute with the girls. Other instruments in the order of favor with the young men are the trumpet, the trombone, the horn, drum, banjo and mandolin.

musical training in colleges is 100 percent more popular today than it was ten years ago.

Approximately one half of all college student leaders, class presidents, and outstanding students play some sort of a musical instrument.

Band and orchestra work is now included in the curriculum of two-fifths of the American colleges and universities.

These are some of the high lights of a survey on college music just completed by the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Indiana. Northwestern university; Knox college, Galesburg; Bradley Polytechnic institute, Peoria; Eureka college; St. Procopius college, at Lisle; Loyola university; De Paul university; the Armour institute of technology; Lombard college, are the eleven Illinois institutions of higher learning who contribute to the survey. Close to 200 colleges furnished the information upon which the results of the survey are based.

Music has become an indispensable

part of college life in the opinion of presidents and heads of music departments in the institutions who answered the survey. It is not only of inestimable value to the college itself, but to the student who takes an active part in it.

Great stress is laid by college heads on the benefits of musical training in character building, the survey reveals. Fully one-fifth of the college executives who contributed to the survey considered this the best argument for music. Others mentioned the social and cultural advantage accruing to the music as an aid toward developing clear thinking, music on the campus as a help in getting many youths through school. All but three of the colleges find their musically trained students more efficient in their studies than those in not so trained.

"Honing one's way through college" compares very favorably with other methods of self-improvement through the college years, according to the college executives. Despite the comparatively limited opportunities offered in the average college town, fully one-fourth of all the students playing in the college bands and orchestras are earnings range all the way from board and room, two dollars an hour tuition fee, and up to two thousand dollars a year. Twelve percent of the college executives in the survey are of the opinion that playing one's way through school pays better than other means, another twelve percent thought it offered an easier way to make one's way through, while a goodly number of others said it interfered least with the students' school work, adding that this work also brings them in contact with worth while people who can help them get started.

Among those playing their way through college, the violin comes first in the preference of instruments. The saxophone is second choice of college players, but seventh with girl musicians. Piano is the second favorite instrument with the girls, and third with the preference of both the young men and women. Organ is the next favorite with the boys, and the flute with the girls. Other instruments in the order of favor with the young men are the trumpet, the trombone, the horn, drum, banjo and mandolin.

musical training in colleges is 100 percent more popular today than it was ten years ago.

Approximately one half of all college student leaders, class presidents, and outstanding students play some sort of a musical instrument.

Band and orchestra work is now included in the curriculum of two-fifths of the American colleges and universities.

These are some of the high lights of a survey on college music just completed by the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Indiana. Northwestern university; Knox college, Galesburg; Bradley Polytechnic institute, Peoria; Eureka college; St. Procopius college, at Lisle; Loyola university; De Paul university; the Armour institute of technology; Lombard college, are the eleven Illinois institutions of higher learning who contribute to the survey. Close to 200 colleges furnished the information upon which the results of the survey are based.

Music has become an indispensable

part of college life in the opinion of presidents and heads of music departments in the institutions who answered the survey. It is not only of inestimable value to the college itself, but to the student who takes an active part in it.

Great stress is laid by college heads on the benefits of musical training in character building, the survey reveals. Fully one-fifth of the college executives who contributed to the survey considered this the best argument for music. Others mentioned the social and cultural advantage accruing to the music as an aid toward developing clear thinking, music on the campus as a help in getting many youths through school. All but three of the colleges find their musically trained students more efficient in their studies than those in not so trained.

"Honing one's way through college" compares very favorably with other methods of self-improvement through the college years, according to the college executives. Despite the comparatively limited opportunities offered in the average college town, fully one-fourth of all the students playing in the college bands and orchestras are earnings range all the way from board and room, two dollars an hour tuition fee, and up to two thousand dollars a year. Twelve percent of the college executives in the survey are of the opinion that playing one's way through school pays better than other means, another twelve percent thought it offered an easier way to make one's way through, while a goodly number of others said it interfered least with the students' school work, adding that this work also brings them in contact with worth while people who can help them get started.

Among those playing their way through college, the violin comes first in the preference of instruments. The saxophone is second choice of college players, but seventh with girl musicians. Piano is the second favorite instrument with the girls, and third with the preference of both the young men and women. Organ is the next favorite with the boys, and the flute with the girls. Other instruments in the order of favor with the young men are the trumpet, the trombone, the horn, drum, banjo and mandolin.

musical training in colleges is 100 percent more popular today than it was ten years ago.

Approximately one half of all college student leaders, class presidents, and outstanding students play some sort of a musical instrument.

Band and orchestra work is now included in the curriculum of two-fifths of the American colleges and universities.

These are some of the high lights of a survey on college music just completed by the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Indiana. Northwestern university; Knox college, Galesburg; Bradley Polytechnic institute, Peoria; Eureka college; St. Procopius college, at Lisle; Loyola university; De Paul university; the Armour institute of technology; Lombard college, are the eleven Illinois institutions of higher learning who contribute to the survey. Close to 200 colleges furnished the information upon which the results of the survey are based.

Music has become an indispensable

part of college life in the opinion of presidents and heads of music departments in the institutions who answered the survey. It is not only of inestimable value to the college itself, but to the student who takes an active part in it.

Great stress is laid by college heads on the benefits of musical training in character building, the survey reveals. Fully one-fifth of the college executives who contributed to the survey considered this the best argument for music. Others mentioned the social and cultural advantage accruing to the music as an aid toward developing clear thinking, music on the campus as a help in getting many youths through school. All but three of the colleges find their musically trained students more efficient in their studies than those in not so trained.

"Honing one's way through college" compares very favorably with other methods of self-improvement through the college years, according to the college executives. Despite the comparatively limited opportunities offered in the average college town, fully one-fourth of all the students playing in the college bands and orchestras are earnings range all the way from board and room, two dollars an hour tuition fee, and up to two thousand dollars a year. Twelve percent of the college executives in the survey are of the opinion that playing one's way through school pays better than other means, another twelve percent thought it offered an easier way to make one's way through, while a goodly number of others said it interfered least with the students' school work, adding that this work also brings them in contact with worth while people who can help them get started.

Among those playing their way through college, the violin comes first in the preference of instruments. The saxophone is second choice of college players, but seventh with girl musicians. Piano is the second favorite instrument with the girls, and third with the preference of both the young men and women. Organ is the next favorite with the boys, and the flute with the girls. Other instruments in the order of favor with the young men are the trumpet, the trombone, the horn, drum, banjo and mandolin.

musical training in colleges is 100 percent more popular today than it was ten years ago.

Approximately one half of all college student leaders, class presidents, and outstanding students play some sort of a musical instrument.

Band and orchestra work is now included in the curriculum of two-fifths of the American colleges and universities.

These are some of the high lights of a survey on college music just completed by the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Indiana. Northwestern university; Knox college, Galesburg; Bradley Polytechnic institute, Peoria; Eureka college; St. Procopius college, at Lisle; Loyola university; De Paul university; the Armour institute of technology; Lombard college, are the eleven Illinois institutions of higher learning who contribute to the survey. Close to 200 colleges furnished the information upon which the results of the survey are based.

Music has become an indispensable

part of college life in the opinion of presidents and heads of music departments in the institutions who answered the survey. It is not only of inestimable value to the college itself, but to the student who takes an active part in it.

Great stress is laid by college heads on the benefits of musical training in character building, the survey reveals. Fully one-fifth of the college executives who contributed to the survey considered this the best argument for music. Others mentioned the social and cultural advantage accruing to the music as an aid toward developing clear thinking, music on the campus as a help in getting many youths through school. All but three of the colleges find their musically trained students more efficient in their studies than those in not so trained.

"Honing one's way through college" compares very favorably with other methods of self-improvement through the college years, according to the college executives. Despite the comparatively limited opportunities offered in the average college town, fully one-fourth of all the students playing in the college bands and orchestras are earnings range all the way from board and room, two dollars an hour tuition fee, and up to two thousand dollars a year. Twelve percent of the college executives in the survey are of the opinion that playing one's way through school pays better than other means, another twelve percent thought it offered an easier way to make one's way through, while a goodly number of others said it interfered least with the students' school work, adding that this work also brings them in contact with worth while people who can help them get started.

musical training in colleges is 100 percent more popular today than it was ten years ago.

Approximately one half of all college student leaders, class presidents, and outstanding students play some sort of a musical instrument.

Band and orchestra work is now included in the curriculum of two-fifths of the American colleges and universities.

These are some of the high lights of a survey on college music just completed by the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Indiana. Northwestern university; Knox college, Galesburg

ARLINGTON H'TS

Thanksgiving November 25.
"Enter into His gates with Thanksgiving."
Union Thanksgiving Services Wednesday night in the Presbyterian church.

Special Sale

Saturday, Nov. 20

Chocolate,
Cocoanut,
Butter,
Maple,
Pineapple Frosted
Layer Cakes.
Also Honey
Layer Cakes. . . . 35c

Orders Received for Special

Thanksgiving
Pies and Cakes

Kuhlmann's Delicatessen

Northwest Highway

Ph. 334 Arlington Heights

Thanksgiving DANCE At The DALEBROOKE

Rand and Foundry Roads

Saturday, Nov. 27, '26

BIG SURPRISE!

NICK'S MUSICAL ENTERTAINERS

Your Wardrobe Checks will Entitle you to Drawings on

Ducks and the Grab Bag

LARGE PARKING SPACE

Admission:
Gents, $1.00
Ladies Free

Wardrobe:
10c Each

We have Real Bargains for Thanksgiving

We have the Best Cranberries money can buy 25c
2 LBS. FOR
And the Two Best Kinds of Sweet Potatoes
We will have good Eating Celery 5 to 25c
AT PER BUNCH
Head Lettuce 10c
PER HEAD
Good Jonathans 25c
4 LBS. FOR
Real Grape Fruit 25c
LARGE; 2 FOR Real Grape Fruit 25c
MEDIUM; 3 FOR

AND MANY OTHER GOOD THINGS

The Square Deal Fruit Market

Call Us Up; We Deliver

Phone 322 Arlington Heights, Ill.

PRIZE SHOOTING and RAFFLE for Mallard and Muscovas Ducks

At SCHNELL'S Corner

SUNDAY, NOV. 21, 1926

and

Thanksgiving Day and every Sunday thereafter

GUST STEINKE, OTTO JAHRLING, ROSS DAVIS, Committee

ian church.
A 48-hour rain, not quite continuous but amply plentiful, from Friday night on.

Elizabeth Garland was at home ill the first of this week.

Teachers of the public schools visited the Evanston schools Monday.

Rexford Volz has begun the building of a new house up on the north side.

The Rev. Ellerbe officiated at the funeral of the four month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waterstrat near DesPlaines last week Friday.

St. James congregation are glad that Father Gall is at home from the hospital and on the way to recovery.

Francis Oselein is one of the victims of whooping cough.

Mrs. Puffer and her little son, John Allen, are at home from the hospital.

Little Barbara McWharther has been staying with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Volz to keep little brother from sharing her whooping cough.

Mrs. Fayette VanGorder has been quite sick the past week, a severe case of sore throat.

The Framburgs and Harold Peters were in Chicago Friday, but not to meet the queen.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Davis were guests of their neighbors, the Hummils Sunday evening.

From the Suburban Times we learn that a happy surprise was given Miss Madelyn Retter late Friday night and that she is to be married Thanksgiving Eve November 24 to Mr. Herbert Behral of Arlington Heights.

Mr. Behrens, the active Realtor is building four new houses on the tract of land he purchased from Mrs. Mary Dunton in the north part of town.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Charles Taege is able to sit up after her severe hurt from a fall.

Mrs. Gertrude Cooke who came to attend her uncle's funeral is staying a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Hodgkins.

The florists of Cook and Lake counties representing "The Flower Growers Association" met in DesPlaines Thursday this week. The leading attraction was a wonderful display of chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Allen are hoping to get into their new home in time for Thanksgiving.

The plasterers are at work on the new home for Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McWharther, and they are looking forward to occupying it before many moons.

Mr. J. O. Bouffard is busy building several new houses in the Harris subdivision in the group is an English colonial, a Dutch colonial and one Spanish style.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkinson arrived home from their eastern trip Saturday of last week. Of course they visited the sequelent.

The children and Mr. and Mrs. Kersche up on North Evergreen have scarlet fever.

Mrs. Henry Weinrich who has not been well for some time is suffering from an attack of asthma.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hodgkins, nephew, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hodgkins, the brother and Mr. and Mrs. Hoy, the niece, from Chicago, attended the funeral of Mr. Scott C. Hodgkins last week Wednesday.

Mrs. Hodgkins' brother, Mr. Thompson and his wife from Geneva, came to attend Mr. Hodgkins' funeral. Also her nephew, Mr. Schulz from St. Paul.

Miss Kruger and Mrs. Schutz (formerly Miss Paul) one time teachers here, who had their home with Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkins, came from the city to attend Mr. Hodgkins' funeral, last week Wednesday.

Mrs. W. W. Guild, president of the local club, attended Reciprocity Day at Park Ridge Tuesday this week.

Mrs. Arnold Scheel (Meta Duenn) who died at her home at Jefferson Park last week, was brought to Arlington Heights for interment by the side of her father, and mother, Monday. Meta lived all her life in this town, and was well known. Beside her husband she leaves her sister, Mrs. Ed. Schulenburg, and her brothers and one daughter, who is with her aunt, Mrs. Schulenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkinson were traveling in the east, and were unable to hear of Mr. Hodgkins' death in time to return home for his funeral.

A group of Camp Fire girls, ten in all, chaperoned by Mrs. Brees in place of their guardian, Mrs. Billman, who was ill, to a gathering of the Camp Fire girls of the district for the purpose of inducting the Princess Ileana into the order of Camp Fire Girls of America. It was an imposing sight to witness. The costumes, the crowds, and the pomp and splendor of royalty, greatly impressed our young American girls, who like Whittier's barefoot boy "only are republican" yet peers of any princess.

Next baby clinic Wednesday, November 24, 1 to 3 o'clock.

Mr. J. Schultz, geologist, who has been in our village a few months, leaves soon for Washington, D. C.

Among those who visited the Great Northern Theatre this week, where "The Vagabond King" is being presented, were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arneiman.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Friganza and son, Bob of Chicago, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Schenk Sunday evening.

The Beatty family will spend the Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. John Beatty.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Draper expect to entertain a group of sixteen November 25.

The MacNabs, Lorenzens and Beaumonts will rejoice together on

The sick may not be able to enjoy turkey or sweets but they would enjoy a beautiful bouquet of plants. Arlington Gardens on Northwest Highway. Phone Arlington Heights 325.

November 25 at the Beaumonts.

S. E. Pate and family will spend Thanksgiving at home this year, entertaining his brother and family from Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Best and family will share the Thanksgiving spirit with Mrs. Best's brother at Oak Park.

Charles Paddock, wife and daughter will spend Thanksgiving Day in Oshkosh, Wis.

Little Jean Marie Mors is having a very disagreeable experience with whooping cough. 'Tis a pity our little ones must have these uncomfortable diseases. It couldn't be in mild even weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Beitz received a fine picture of his father and mother in the family group taken at their new home in California. The sixth of October, when they were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. All their children were present excepting Mr. and Mrs. Herman Beitz. It was said to be a fine picture of the California group.

Mr. Roscoe Reed, accompanied by Chicago musical friends will attend Opello Club Concert next Monday night at Orchestra hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arneiman very heartily enjoyed seeing "The Vagabond King" at the Great Northern theatre, one night last week. No doubt it was way ahead of seeing the "borrowing queen."

Mr. Eberhardt and family came Sunday to join his brothers and sisters, three car loads of them going to Elmhurst to celebrate Mrs. Oscar Weinrich's birthday, and you may be sure they were a cheerful party lot, and duly celebrated the occasion.

Mrs. Dora Hintz fell in, in her home one day last week and sprained or twisted the ligaments in one side so she has been much disabled ever since.

Mrs. Garland Sr. who is one of our cheerful shut-in friends, has suffered much inconvenience lately because of damp changeable weather.

Mrs. Gross from Chicago spent first of this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hartman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Beitz entertained a group of friends from Chicago to a bountiful course dinner, with half a spring chicken for each guest, and everything to go with it. The guests were Mr. R. Ginsky and his sisters the two Misses Ginsky, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. George Freisa. They all declared themselves well pleased with Arlington Heights and the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Beitz.

Mrs. George Heritage from Austin came to address the Woman's club Wednesday, fulfilling her postponed address which was to have been given last week.

Future husbands are being made this week, as the scouts pass their cooking tests under the direction of Ed. Chidley Senior Patrol Leader of the 45th Scout troop.

Through the aid of Dr. Best have been able to pass their second class first aid work. The ranking scouts in the Heights high school troop this week are: Ed. Chidley, 55 points; Sherman Pate 55; Wesley Knox 45; Ed. Adams 45; Fred Durai 40.

CONCERT COMING

Something pleasant to anticipate Mr. Reed, the music teacher so favorably well known is to give a concert some time in December, to be given in the Lutheran Auditorium.

Miss Heien Kollin will have the entire program, those who have heard her play, know this will mean a musical treat. Two guest artists—reader and tenor, from the city will give numbers during the evening. Watch for notice next week.

Woman's Club Enjoys Social November 17

The program planned for the social evening of the Woman's club was carried out at the regular meeting, Nov. 17. Any one who was not there missed a rare treat. The music under the management of Mr. Chas. Lorenzen was very enjoyable. The two solos were sung by Mrs. Milton Daniels. One number on the program was given by a "home made" orchestra, which the performers appeared to enjoy as well as the listeners. A tambourine, accordion and a triangle were among the musical instruments used. The triangle belongs to Mrs. D. T. McNab and was used many years ago.

Miss Forbes of Chicago told of the work of the Red Cross, of the methods employed and what is accomplished. We realized when hearing her that in responding to the call we are helping a great work. Mrs. Heritage from Austin, then gave us a history of many of the songs that are to every one. She told of the circumstances under which they were written, the time and place and why they continue to live on through the years. She said the influence of music on the mind and heart is great to be estimated. Songs of different classes were spoken of patriotic, military, folk songs, love and religious. She is wonderfully conversant with her subject.

Do we ever stop to realize the debt we owe to the poets and musicians who gave us these wonderful melodies?

Ragson Tatters says he has two claims for greatness. He has never attempted to swim the English Channel and does not own a motor car.

Bed is a bundle of paradoxes, we go to it with reluctance, yet we quit it with regret; and we make up our minds every night to leave it early, but we make up our minds every morning to keep it late.

Frances Moore Toast of Chicago in Show

Florence Moore, described by Chicago critics as the "most gorgeous clown on the American stage," is the toast of the town in her new farce, "She Couldn't Say No," at the Shubert Olympic theatre in the Windy City. Not since this celebrated actress appeared in "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" a few years ago has any play suited her unique expression of humorous lines as the new show.

Miss Moore portrays the role of a lawyer. She is really a stenographer in the play, but her employer is a failure and while he is away she accepts a celebrated breach-of-promise case in a small town. Then the fun begins. Not in twenty years has a funnier scene than the one in the country courtroom been written.

The star flirts with the judge, joshes the jury and of course wins the case. The story moves with a dash and a whirl, one hearty laugh following another in rapid motion. "She Couldn't Say No" is a genuine nirkquake.

For the women who want to see the newest in hair bobs, Miss Moore is wearing the very latest—the riding-habit bob. It is becoming the rage in Chicago. Her gowns are the latest from Paris. This is a show that has everything.

The Riskin brothers, producers of "She Couldn't Say No," are graduates of the movie industry, where they made two-reel comedies. They know every trick to make an audience laugh. Their experiences in manufacturing humor, coupled with Miss Moore's knowledge of bringing forth tumultuous roars of laughter makes her entertainment the big riot of the current season.

Matinees are given Wednesday and Saturday and there is no extra charge at the Saturday and Sunday night performances.

McVickers Theatre to Show New List of Vitaphone Pictures

The Warner Bros., from their New York office, have just made known a list of artists they have signed on long term contracts to record for Vitaphone, the invention that synchronizes the reproduction of sound with the reproduction of action. The list includes such nationally known stars as Martinelli, Al. Johnson, George Jessel, Elsie Janis, Anna Case, Mischa Elman, Marion Talley, Mme. Schumann-Heink, Mary Lewis, DeWolf Hopper, Eugene and Willie Howard, Reinold Werrenrath, Harold Bauer, Efrim Zimbalist, Henry Hadley, Herman Heller and the New York Philharmonic orchestra.

These artists, the first of a long

Recently a man who has often appeared as a banquet speaker defined the American banquet as an affair where a speaker first eats a lot of food he doesn't want and then proceeds to talk about something he doesn't understand to a crowd of people who don't want to hear him.

Mrs. Ragson Tatters says—these short skirts make the girls wear pretty fancy garters. It isn't the original cost of silk stockings any more. It's the upkeep that's high.

Most of the fire in the modern girl's eyes is quenched by the water on her brain.

They say the younger set are a weak-kneed lot. Nonsense! How can they be weak-kneed after all this Charlestoning.

These Broadway revues are called satires because they're just one take-off after another. That's hardly anything left to take off.

A restaurant manager advertised for an expert carver. To the first applicant for the job he said, "What are your qualifications?" "Well, sir," the man replied, "at my last place I cut the meat so thin that when the door opened, to let other customers in the draft blew the meat off the plates." He got the job.

In the old days all the equipment necessary for a sports program at the Sunday school picnic was a chip on the other fellow's shoulder.

THE MILKY WAY

Mrs. BROWN says "It's fine"

"Ask Mrs. Brown! She'll tell you 'Sure! I know the milk they sell is pure!'"

—says Billy Break O'Day

Rascher's DAIRY

PHONE 13732

Pasteurized and T. B. Tested Milk

list whose services the Warners are seeking for this new form of entertainment, have already recorded their talents on the Vitaphone, two of the programmes having already been released. The first one, co-starring Martinelli, Anna Case, Mischa Elman and Roy Smeek in conjunction with the John Barrymore production "Don Juan," is now entering its ninth week at McVickers and the second one will be seen at the Woods theatre, Dec. 2. This bill has for its stars Al. Johnson, George Jessel, Elsie Janis and others.

Coming at a time when the so-called legitimate theatre is at its lowest ebb and when there appears to be a great shortage of plays to fill the playhouses, the Vitaphone is proving a great boom to the actor. In their newly acquired studio in New York, Warner Bros. are employing on Vitaphone programs more actors than a half dozen producing managers. Six new pictures are being synchronized, all of them to be accompanied by a Vitaphone prologue.

Its success, as well as its place in the world of amusement having been conceded by showmen and critics, the Vitaphone looms up now as the friend in need to both the legitimate and the movies. Eight Vitaphone-Barrymore programmes are now playing in as many different cities, mainly in theaters where the drama is ordinarily revealed.

According to current rumor, the Warner Bros., are formulating plans whereby they will have a Vitaphone theatre in every important city from Coast to Coast. The materialization of these plans, which seems certain, would mean the largest theatre syndicate in the world.

Oakland Cars in a New Economy Test

Eight Oakland Six cars, one model from each successive year since 1919, engaged in one of the strangest economy tests recorded in recent months when R. Knox Roberts of Portland, Ore., pitted each against the other to renew this car's claim as the champion economy car.

In this unique test, both open and closed cars were used. Each was filled with a measured gallon of gasoline, started over the same route which embraced both an up and down grade, and was driven until the last drop of gas sputtered and the engine stopped. The oldest car was a 1920 model produced in 1919 and each successive year was represented, the Greater Oakland Six sedan carrying the banner for the 1927 Oakland line.

All cars were under the official observation of Ernest W. Peterson,

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

Automobile Editor of the Oregon Journal. All the gasoline was emptied and then a measured gallon of the fuel placed back in each. The observer followed the strange motorcade in an Oakland Landau Sedan, starting with the speedometer set at zero. As the gasoline supply of each car in the line gave out, the car was stopped. Thereupon the observer read from the mileometer of his own car the mileage that had been run on the fuel and made his computations accordingly. The gasoline mileage of the various cars in the run ranged from 21.9 to 26.5 miles. The average for the eight cars was within the slightest fraction of 24.7 miles to the gallon.

For many years, the Oakland Six has made noteworthy records in economy and endurance runs in many parts of the country and is widely known as the Champion Economy car. This unique test bears out the consistency of Oakland engineering with regard to the economy and gasoline use and indicates that the Present Greater Oakland series has noted its way into the company of its champion economy predecessors.

The test further showed that economy of gasoline consumption is not only one of the engineered features of each Oakland model, but that from year to year the company does not indulge in freakish design.

PALATINE

The choir of St. Pauls church attended a play at the Elmhurst college Tuesday night.

Theophil Voeks and Stanley Beckman attended Grand Opera Sunday and saw Mary Garden in "Carmen."

Mr. Gus Arps and John Arps attended the Odd Fellows Veteran banquet at the Stevens restaurant last Saturday night.

Sutherland W. R. C. postponed their trip to North Chicago's hospital last Monday. They will go later.

Mrs. Elnora Foster attended the funeral of Mrs. Ella Work in Chicago Wednesday. Mrs. Work was well known here, as she was a Past Department president of the Woman's Relief Corps and has visited Sutherland Corps many times.

Mrs. Clara Filbert and Mrs. Anna Goebel of DesPlaines spent last Friday with Mrs. C. D. Taylor. Mrs. Paltz will entertain the Rebekah Aid society at her home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarnan and son Roger spent Sunday with Mrs. Tarnan's parents in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Domkowski spent Sunday in Chicago.

For Sale—Slightly used player piano (used only six months) family leaving town. For sale at a very good discount—Marie Schaefer, 1436 Miner St., DesPlaines, Ill. Phone 2794. (11-26)

Mrs. Anna Boeger is ill at the St. Elizabeth hospital.

Palatine Fire Department was called out Tuesday afternoon to the home of Charles Collins on North Plum Grove ave. The loss was an upholstered chair and a rug.

Mr. and Mrs. Butt have moved into the Fred Berlin house vacated by Grover Beck.

Arthur Knigge has gone to visit his sister and niece at Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Philip Matthei of Chicago spent last week caring for grandma Matthei.

Lawrence Frye has been sick at the hospital at Cedar Falls, Ia., with an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Grandy is home after caring for Mrs. Sigwalt at DesPlaines.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parkhurst have moved into the Henry Dahl house vacated by the Johnstone family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gainer Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Malley spent Sunday at Gilman, Ill., with Dr. John Gainer and family.

Miss Lydia Burkhardt is married and living in Iowa.

We have received reports that there will be two weddings in the very near future.

The Armistice Day program given en last, Thursday evening under the direction of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the American Legion was well attended. The Camp Fire girls, boy scouts and Legion all participated. R. L. Peck gave a short address in honor of the day. A special dance number by John Domkosky's son brought hearty applause. Mrs. John Senne presided. The program opened with a few words of greeting by Mrs. J. H. Toynton. Five reels of a historical picture depicting Columbus' discovery of America and a two reel comedy were also given.

Leave your orders for Christmas poultry at Henry Bruhns. A choice selection this year.

Armistice tag day conducted by the local W. R. C. for the benefit of ex-service men at Speedway hospital, netted $75.

Sutherland Corps No. 89 held Past President's night this Friday evening. Mrs. Lily Schirring will act as president, the other positions being filled by other past presidents.

Mrs. C. D. Taylor, who has been in the Palatine hospital, was so far improved this week that she returned to her home Thursday afternoon.

The faculty of the Palatine high school motored to Champaign Thursday afternoon where they attended the state wide meeting of the Illinois State Teachers association.

At the same time the Illinois high school State Press association was in session. Miss Vernetta Schroeder, editor in chief of the Spotlight, local high school monthly, was a delegate. Others of the Spotlight faculty who were able to be present, were Misses Dorothy and Esther Bruhns.

Miss Bernice Gehrke, of Gainer Park was burned about the face and hands when a gasoline lamp exploded. She was taken to the Palatine hospital.

The street department has been cleaning up the curbs and the streets are now in excellent shape for winter. The semi-annual collection of rubbish will be made very soon.

Henry Bicknase has moved into his new residence. When the reporter told Henry that few men would build such a large house, he replied, "few men have a family such as I". Henry is right. The family is worthy of the house, and it is some house. Such spacious rooms are found in few modern homes. The house is modern in every respect and it contains many unique features. Yes, room was provided for Earl's electric repair shop, in the basement.

The lobby of the State Bank has several interesting exhibits at this time. The most noteworthy is that of Continental bank notes that are owned by Dr. W. P. Schirring. They are dated in the years 1776, '77, '78 and '79. The denominations are multiples of the Spanish dollar and read "one sixth of a dollar," "two-thirds of a dollar," etc. Evidently the Continental congress was opposed to adopting the money values of Great Britain. Other exhibits are an immense pie pumpkin raised by Wm. Linne-meyer, corn by Mr. Windheim and apples by Dan Bergman.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and father, Earl F. Siep, who passed away one year ago, Nov. 23, 1925.

Often we pause and think of you, And think of how you died; To think you could not say good-bye.

Before you closed your eyes, No one knows the silent heartache Only those that have loved can tell.

Of the grief that is borne in silence For our dear son whom we loved so well, Loving Parents and daughter Dorothy.

RAILROADS SAFER FOR PASSENGERS

But for the accident at the grade crossing, the railroad of this country would be making excellent record on the score of safety to life. While the casualties in train service have been on the decrease, the grade crossing keeps up the high total. Trespassers also add to the sum. Last year there were 5,497 "accidents" at grade crossings, and in these accidents, 2,206 persons were killed. No wonder the railroad locomotive engineer hates the grade crossing.

Among the illiterate and impoverished laughter is natural and unrestrained and even cultivated. It makes life endurable. But with those classes which aspire to cultivate refinement as society defines them it is usual to bridle one's laughter.

WITT'S

ICE CREAM PARLOR

Order Your Thanksgiving

Ice Cream and Candies

We have specials for Thanksgiving Trade. When planning that Thanksgiving dinner Order at

WALTER WITT

Phone 153-R

Bakery Goods of the Better Kind for Sale Here

OBITUARY

James Mair

James Mair was born at Kilmaurs, Ayrshire, Scotland, on March 26, 1858, and died at Palatine, Ill., U. S. A. on Nov. 9, 1926. Age 68 years, 7 months, and 13 days. He was the son of Jean Richmond Mair, and William Mair.

He grew to manhood in the place of his birth, but in 1882 he left for Trinidad, in the West Indies to take charge of a sugar plantation for the British government. After spending two years there he came to Palatine, Ill., and in 1893 married Sarah Meyer of Palatine. To this union have been born two children, William and Edna. For the first three years of their married life they resided in Waterman, Ill. They later moved to Crystal Springs Creamery, Crystal Lake, Ill., where Mr. Mair operated a creamery for seven years. Following this he became manager of the Bowman Dairy Company's Bottling plant at Crystal Lake, Ill., for a period of three years and was then transferred to Palatine, Ill., where he served as manager for 21 years.

Mr. Mair was a member of the Presbyterian church of Scotland, but during his residence in Palatine he has always supported the Methodist church and has with his wife, made use of the M. E. Sunday school as an aid in the religious culture of the family.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, one daughter Edna, of Palatine, one son William also of Palatine, a daughter-in-law Dorothy, a grandson Billy; three sisters, Mrs. Andrew Ross, Mrs. Wm. Wilson and Mrs. John Smith all of Scotland; also six brothers, William, Thomas and Alexander of Scotland, Matthew Mair of Fox Lake, Wis., John W. Mair, Crystal Lake, Ill., and Robert Mair, Linton, Ore. besides a host of relatives and friends.

It is the testimony of all that knew him that there was never a better husband, father, neighbor and friend.

Interment was held at the Hillside cemetery on Nov. 12, 1926.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for all the kindnesses shown us during our sad bereavement.

Mrs. James Mair and family.

STOP AND SHOP at the Herald office. Delight your friends with a year's subscription to your local paper for Christmas.

Betty Crocker CHATS

Betty Crocker, the nationally known food specialist, is broadcasting her Home Service Chats this year from the following stations: WEEL, Boston, Mass.; WFL, Philadelphia, Pa.; WEA, New York, N. Y.; KDKA, Pittsburgh, Pa.; WGR, Buffalo, N. Y.; WTAM, Cleveland, O.; WJL, Detroit, Mich.; WHT, Chicago, Ill.; KSD, St. Louis, Mo.; WDAF, Kansas City, Mo.; KFI, Los Angeles, Cal.; KPO, San Francisco, Cal.; and WCCO, Gold Medal Station, Twin Cities, Minn. Her talks are based on the work of herself and assistants in model kitchens.

By special arrangement the Cook County Herald is able to offer its readers these home service recipes and discussions.

LET'S TAKE A VACATION

HOW nice it would be if each one of us could work out a weekly vacation plan, and cut down the "just beforehand" preparation so much for at least one day a week that we could have a whole long afternoon to spend—not giving the house an extra dusting, or getting up-to-date with that troublesome mending basket—but simply for the kind of recreation or rest which appeals to us most. Many of us need these little vacations so badly and take them so grudgingly.

But what is to happen to the family that evening? There are several ways of preparing a satisfying meal with a minimum of "just beforehand" preparation. One is by the use of prepared or semi-prepared canned or packaged foods; another is by the use of such helps as the fireless cooker, the steam pressure cooker and the temperature-regulated oven. And still another is by selecting dishes which may be partly prepared in the morning, and require only a minimum of time to complete in the evening before serving.

I have a friend whose family is particularly fond of baked beans. She at many times regretted this preference because it kept her tied down many long days baking beans. A fireless cooker was the solution of one of her biggest problems. She now serves baked beans frequently and on this day arranges an almost complete vacation from cooking.

But one doesn't need a fireless cooker to make use of this suggestion for a vacation day menu. Our New England grandmothers did not teach their families to eat baked beans without reason. In those days, when housekeeping also meant spinning and weaving, as well as hundreds of other household tasks which have been removed from the modern home, the housewife discovered that a pot of baked beans could be placed in a slow oven and be entirely forgotten for many hours. And so a slow oven may be used with equal success today.

The beans are simply soaked over night, parboiled, seasoned and placed in the cooker or a very slow oven just after breakfast in the morning, and need not be given another thought until it is time to serve them that night. I wonder if you have ever tried cutting up frankfurters and baking them with beans instead of the usual pork, or using a combination of the two. This gives a very delicious change in flavor. Of course, baked beans are never quite perfect unless served with brown bread. Here is the recipe for Boston Brown Bread:

Boston Brown Bread
1 cup flour
2 1/2 teaspoons soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup corn meal
1 cup whole wheat or graham flour
3/4 cup black molasses
2 cups sour milk
1/2 cup chopped raisins may be added if desired

Method: Sift flour once before measuring. Sift soda and salt with flour. Mix with corn meal and whole wheat flour. Mix molasses and sour milk together and stir into the dry ingredients. Pour into well-greased tins. This bread may be either steamed or baked. The time for baking is 3 hours in a very slow oven—300° F. This recipe will make two medium sized loaves of bread.

Possibly you would be interested in the rest of the menu my friend serves with the beans and brown bread. There is usually a cabbage salad, varied one time by the addition of chopped apples and nuts; another time cabbage is combined with diced pineapple and marshmallows, or green pepper and celery are used. The cabbage is shredded in the morning and kept crisp in very cold water in the refrigerator. The leaves of lettuce for serving the salad are separated and placed in a damp lettuce bag or wrapped in a damp tea towel and placed on ice. Of course, the foresighted housekeeper always prepares salad dressing in generous quantities once a week and has them ready for emergencies. For dessert, some variation of a baked custard, canned peaches with whipped cream or a fruit cup of seasonal fresh fruits, served with cookies, is very good and may be prepared in the morning in a very few minutes.

St. Paul's Evang. Church

John C. Voeks, Pastor
Sunday Nov. 21, the last Sunday of this church year.

Sunday school 9:30 a. m.
Morning service 10:30 German Memorial service, Totten Sonntag.

Evening service 7:30 in English. This will be our Thanksgiving service.

The St. Paul's Ladies Aid society is invited by the Ladies society of Barrington to attend their meeting, Dec. 2, 2 p. m. Members who were not at our last meeting and wish to go with the ladies please call the secretary, Mrs. B. Voeks this week.

The members of our Brotherhood are invited to visit at DesPlaines, Dec. 3, 8 p. m.

The Evangelical League will meet Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, 8 o'clock. You are welcome.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

There are still a number of water bills unpaid. There is no excuse for this continued late payment of bills on the part of some consumers. You are given plenty of time and have been treated with every consideration. A list of all unpaid bills will be turned over to the water department Nov. 29, and orders will be given to shut off water at once. A list of all consumers shut off will be given to the Palatine Enterprise for publication.

VILLAGE OF PALATINE.

Don't tell a Scotchman a Scotch joke. He won't laugh at his own expense.

BIG BARN DANCE

AT HEINE'S
Furnace Heated Barn

SUNDAY,
Nov. 21

No Dance November 14
BABCOCK'S
ORCHESTRA

Bread of every description—the best baking in each art at your command each day. To your advantage, we specialize in the "staff of life." Try some.

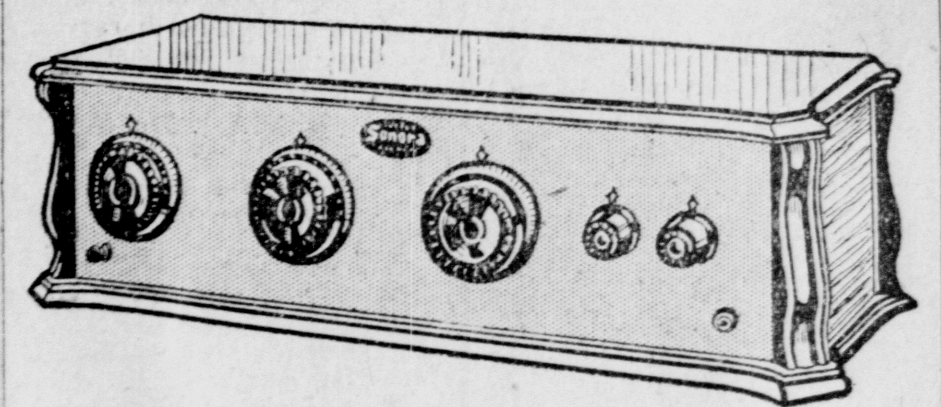

"Most nourishing food"

CHAS. KYNEL
PALATINE BAKERY

Palatine, Ill.

Authorized Dealer For THE INSTRUMENT OF QUALITY Sonora CLEAR AS A BELL

$90 $125 $185

Come in and hear these wonderful Radios.

Our past experience selling and installing Radios guarantees you satisfaction if you buy your Radio from

Harry Schlenker

Phone 141-W Palatine, Ill.

Telephone Palatine 16-R-2

SUNSET FARM

On Dundee Road; 7 miles west of Wheeling, Ill

Hunter's, Saddle and Work horses for sale
Horses Schooled and Boarded

Mary C. Llewellyn, Owner

Stanley S. Luke, Mgr.,

PALATINE, ILL.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Palatine, Illinois

Adversity

Snaps at the heels of prosperity and sometimes bites—and bites hard.

The days do not always run smoothly.

Health does not always prevail—

Wages are not always high—

Work is sometimes scarce

Have you ever been caught unprepared?—If so, are you going to allow yourself to be caught again?

You can start a savings account here with as little as one lone, single dollar.

Every dollar added will help you to make your future secured and more contented.

Make it a habit to be prepared.

We encourage you

Cordially yours,

E. P. Stinchfield
Cashier.

Goldenrod Dairy Farm Pure Milk

MILK AND CREAM THAT IS PURE

Twice each day, at our sanitary dairy farm, pure milk is produced and conveyed to the bottles in the most sanitary manner that modern dairy practice has developed. It is a health protection that we feel we owe to our customers.

Milk Routes in Palatine and Lake Zurich
Phone Lake Zurich • 54-R-1; Daily Delivery

Here You Are, Folks!!

SPECIAL PLATE DINNER 65c

(Includes Coffee and Dessert)

Dede's Sweet Shop has installed a new Steam Table. Also Coffee Urn of Highest Grade.

Delicious Bunte and Gunther Chocolates at $1 Pound

Dede's Sweet Shop

H. B. Niemeyer, Prop.

Tel. Pal. 141-J Brockway Street
Palatine, Illinois

Are You A Sun Dodger?

There is a new race of men in New York City called sun dodgers.

They dodge in and out of dark alleys and under tail buildings so as to never see the sun. Most of them spend their holidays riding in the subway.

There is also another variety of sun dodger who purposely shuts the light of happiness out of his life. Sun dodgers of this variety are the only people nowadays who don't save. We know you aren't one of them.

Save at this Bank.

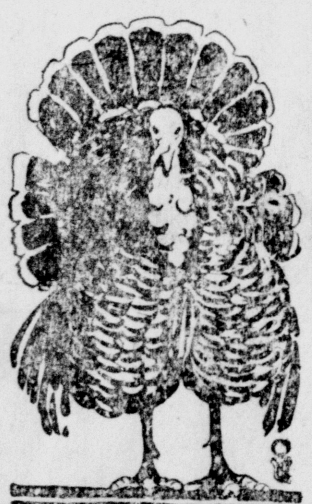

State Bank of Palatine

PALATINE - ILLINOIS

TURKEYS

Geese,
Ducks,
Chickens

For Thanksgiving

Just don't you waste a minute when you decide to have Fowl for Thanksgiving Dinner. Phone 32 telling us the size of the bird you want—we will do the rest. And guarantee your satisfaction.

Schmidt's Market

Palatine, Ill.

Authorized Dealer for SONORA-CROSLEY Radio Corporation RADIOS

Come in and hear them; by turning a switch we can demonstrate any Radio or Speaker we sell.

Let us show you the latest models in Radio

We have them at all prices.

Crosley, 5-38, complete$ 75.00

Crosley, 5-75 in cabinet$125.00

Sonora, C model, complete ..$125.00

Sonora D model, complete ..$250.00

aidmond T 6-tube set$ 95.00

Our third year handling Radio and we only sell sets that give complete satisfaction.

We service all sets we sell. Ask your neighbor who bought their Radio from Schlenker.

Buy your Radio from

Harry Schlenker

Phone 141-W Palatine, Ill.

HIGGINS--CANFIELD

The Junior Waltham League of St. Paul's Lutheran school will give a buncos party, Dec. 17 and 18 in the auditorium. This will be our first buncos and we assure you a good time, beginning at 8 p. m. Now don't forget the place and time. Bring your friends.

Members of the society please take notice everyone is asked to be present Nov. 24, as our president will have the tickets ready for us to sell.

At their regular meeting Sunday the congregation decided to have a special house to house collection for synodical purposes. There is great need in various treasuries, but if everyone does his share the deficit would soon be wiped out.

It was also decided to set the time of the beginning of the Christmas eve program earlier than usual. The services that evening will begin at 5 o'clock p. m. This will give everyone time to get home earlier and to celebrate the evening at home.

Do not forget the buncos party Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 19 and 20. This is given by the Concordia Mutual Benefit League. Admission 35c.

The Ladies Aid annual Christmas sale will be held, Dec. 3. Supper will be served at 6, after which the sale begins.

Miss Elsie Motier was operated upon for goiter Monday, Nov. 15, at the Grant hospital. She is reported doing nicely.

WOODDALE

The announcement, last week, about the entertainment "Mummy and the Mumps," still stands. No entertainment, Nov. 19, as had been planned. The regular monthly meeting of the Community club will be held Friday evening, Nov. 26. No program that evening.

Saturday evening, Dec. 4, the Community club will provide an entertainment different from anything that has been attempted before.

Mrs. R. S. Parrish and son, Jack visited Nancy Parrish in Evanston Sunday.

The annual Red Cross drive for members is now on, and will be until Nov. 25. Mrs. W. C. Nielsen has been appointed chairman for Wooddale. All Wooddalers who support the Red Cross should enroll in Wooddale, as it helps to put Wooddale on the map, so far as Red Cross is concerned. Some day we may need the Red Cross relief right here at home, so we should all do our part to keep it going.

Neighbors and friends of the Culeks are grieved to hear of the death of their son, Joseph Jr., aged 27 years, married, but no children. He had been ill a long time. The funeral was held from his home in Chicago, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lemke were Chicago visitors Monday.

The Thanksgiving program at the school house next Wednesday, will be held at 2:30 p. m. All children and their mothers are invited to attend. Herman Schulze had the misfortune to break his left arm Sunday evening. The ladder he was climbing to the hayloft of the barn slipped, and he fell.

The children of the Wooddale school have started work on their Christmas program. The entertainment this year will be bigger and better than ever.

Mrs. Jacobson, mother of Mrs. Charles Klein, died Saturday night. She had been afflicted with cancer for some time. All Wooddale extends its sympathy to the Klein family.

The school trustees recently purchased additional bookcases for the school. The school library has increased within the last year, and Wooddale can boast of the best country school library in the county.

ITASCA

Mrs. Lawrence is entertaining her niece, Mrs. R. F. Blacklock of Regina, Sask., Canada, who was called to Ohio by the death of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Badell. Mr. Blacklock is registrar of the educational department of Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wendt and family spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kolzow in Hinsdale.

Mrs. Wm. Wendt and Mrs. Walter Hauck spent Thursday in Elmhurst.

Miss Elizabeth Glanz was operated for appendicitis Monday at the Elmhurst hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weber quietly celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Serl Chessman and son, Carol, left Friday by car for Los Angeles, Cal. They have been here visiting since last February.

Miss Mary Adelaide Pierce entertained Sunday a her home in Ontarioville in honor of Miss Dorothy Updegraff of Chicago and Mr. Nelson Bryant of Itasca whose marriage will be celebrated soon.

Mrs. Howard Chessman entertained a number of Chicago friends at her home on Oak Street Saturday evening. Cards, buncos and refreshments completed a happy evening.

Mrs. Wm. Schuette entertained the YukNo club Thursday evening.

Marjory Schroeder entertained a party of Chicago schoolmates last week in honor of her 16th birthday.

Use the little black mail box for news.

Fifteen relatives and neighbors surprised Mrs. Elmer Geils Wednesday in honor of her birthday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing buncos and enjoying delightful refreshments served by Mrs. H. H. Geils.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Benhart is nearing completion.

Miss Minnie Hartman of Rodenburg and Mr. Elmer Benhart were married Sunday, Nov. 14, in the Lutheran church of Rodenburg.

BENSENVILLE

About forty guests gathered at the C. J. Peterson home Saturday evening Nov. 13 to celebrate the birthday of Fay Peterson. At the same time they celebrated the birthdays of four other members of the family their birthdays all coming in the second and third weeks of November. After playing games and dancing everyone partook of a cafeteria lunch. Miss Eva White and George Groby won the prizes for making the "Honey-moon Trail" in the shortest time.

Among the guests were about twenty from Chicago, one from Mannheim and the rest from Bensenville. All enjoyed a splendid evening.

Monday night about 32 friends of Mrs. Ernst Seilkopf gathered at her home to help her celebrate her birthday. To say that a wonderful time was enjoyed would be putting it mild.

Mr. and Mrs. Watters of Addison street entertained relatives from Chicago over the week-end.

Walter Madill is hunting this week with friends at Iron River, Mich.

Edwin Spindel who has been ill the past ten days is much improved at this time.

Dr. James has obtained the services of Mrs. Myrtle Weaver to assist in receiving patients into the office. The doctor believes when he is busy in the inner office patients should have some one to wait on them until he can receive them into the private office. Also the new arrangement gives him some one to give immediate attention to phone calls.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warneke drove over from Oak Park Friday night to attend the R. N. A. celebration.

The 11th commandment: Thou shalt drive thy automobile in a manner as to protect thyself and others from accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Root, Tonning who were in Chicago Sunday accidentally ran across the "Queen's Parade" in Chicago in the big city. As the Queen's visit in this part of the United States was of too short duration to allow her to visit all the beautiful suburbs of Chicago a lot of us did not get to see her.

Rain, Rain, Rain several days of it has made travel anything but a pleasure and still nothing is ever so bad but it might be worse, York street as it now is provides a way to get through Bensenville without fear of getting stuck. We were sure lucky to have it opened up for travel before this long rainy spell hit us. Now for the storm sewer, more paving and more annexation of surrounding territory and our "City Beautiful" will surpass all expectations of a few years ago.

Speaking of wide streets leading out of Chicago, what's the matter with Irving Park being widened. It leads into the main part of Chicago through a district less thickly built up with high buildings than any other street, and could be widened at less expense. What say?

Mrs. Helen Smithurst and children departed Friday for Boscobel Wisconsin to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Those who failed to attend the monthly meeting of the Bensenville P. T. A. last week can't even surmise what a treat they missed. That wonderful organization is doing things which a few years ago were never thought of. School teachers were then looked upon as an individual we hired to take care of our children eight hours a day for a few days a week. But thanks to the founders of the P. T. A. we have now learned that a great deal of the success in school work depends upon the co-operation of teachers and parents. Both have a work to perform that needs the help of the other and judging from the attendance at our last meeting we assume that the majority of the people in Bensenville realize this fact. Rev. Rinder did his share to put pep into the meeting by the manner in which he carried on the community singing.

A full report of the meeting will be found in another column of this week's Register as this work is in the hands of the publicity committee. Read it through and if you missed the last meeting don't miss the next and our advice to our readers is to watch the Register for what ever announcement that committee may have for you prior to the next meeting.

George Franzen & Co., have bought of his brother Oscar an International furnace to heat their office building. It will require 1000 square inches of air to heat the lodge hall above their office.

Ex-postmaster Fred Elfring has bought two International furnaces of Oscar Franzen. A pipeless furnace to heat the store and post-office and a pipe furnace to heat his residence.

Center Theatre will give away free a 15 lb. turkey Wednesday, Nov. 24. One chance with every admission ticket. Holder of the lucky number (?) must be in the theatre at time of drawing to win.

Switchman Beleva who resides at Franklin Park but is employed in the Bensenville yards had his leg broken Tuesday evening. After cutting a public crossing so the traffic could proceed he was accidentally struck by a passing auto which he was informed did not stop to assist the injured man. He was taken by another auto to Washington Blvd. hospital where his broken limb was taken care of by company doctors. It really seems that when a man has parted his train to let autos pass, and one of them had accidentally knocked him down that the least they could do would be to ascertain whether or not the man was injured before driving off and leaving him.

George Korthauer who is still in the Elmhurst hospital nursing a broken leg, is reported getting along nicely and will be out in a short time.

The board of public works have recommended four and one half miles of paving in Bensenville this coming year. Business streets will be forty foot wide and residential streets thirty foot. The program will include all the business streets and the most thickly populated residential streets. This is a move to lift Bensenville out of the mud and place her on solid footing. This alone ought to double the population of this beautiful suburban town. Without a doubt the village board will act favorably on the recommendation of the committee.

Word comes to relatives of Martin Wolf who was accidentally shot in the foot while out hunting, that he is recovering rapidly. Although amputation of the foot was necessary his strong will power enabled him to stand the shock extremely well.

RE-DISCOVERING ILLINOIS

That can of "sugar corn" which you bought at the corner grocery and opened for your dinner this evening had a romance of Illinois sealed between its unromantic covers. You may not know it but the packing of sweetcorn in the central west, was started in Hoopston almost a half century ago. This year was the forty-ninth "pack."

You may not know it but Hoopston is a city of 6,000 that has grown up almost entirely around the canning industry. You may not know it but seventy-five per cent of the machinery used in the entire fruit and vegetable canning industry in the United States is manufactured in Hoopston.

It may surprise you when I tell you that there is a can manufacturing plant in Hoopston, making completed cans out of flat sheet tin, so marvelously equipped that its twelve automatic can-making machines can turn out, in a minute, 100,000 a year or about 1,500,000 in a working day—which is 37 carloads of cans; That's cans.

Hoopston is in the northern end of Vermilion county, near the Indiana state line. Something in the soil there somehow meant a better, sweeter sweetcorn. That was learned by the early growers and they bent their backs to the opportunity. The season's pack in Hoopston in 1925 was 800,000 cases or 19,200,000 cans. It fell off in 1926, the crop yielding only about 16,800,000 cans.

In this lesser yield this season is something else for us to think about, a story of the battle to give you that can of corn you had for dinner tonight. It is a story of an army of workers fighting against difficult odds to win. For this year the fields were flooded by rains that came in torrents.

For days the packers in the district feared that you would not be able to have that can of corn and if you could not have it their widened at less expense. What say?

Mrs. Helen Smithurst and children departed Friday for Boscobel Wisconsin to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Those who failed to attend the monthly meeting of the Bensenville P. T. A. last week can't even surmise what a treat they missed. That wonderful organization is doing things which a few years ago were never thought of. School teachers were then looked upon as an individual we hired to take care of our children eight hours a day for a few days a week. But thanks to the founders of the P. T. A. we have now learned that a great deal of the success in school work depends upon the co-operation of teachers and parents. Both have a work to perform that needs the help of the other and judging from the attendance at our last meeting we assume that the majority of the people in Bensenville realize this fact. Rev. Rinder did his share to put pep into the meeting by the manner in which he carried on the community singing.

A full report of the meeting will be found in another column of this week's Register as this work is in the hands of the publicity committee. Read it through and if you missed the last meeting don't miss the next and our advice to our readers is to watch the Register for what ever announcement that committee may have for you prior to the next meeting.

George Franzen & Co., have bought of his brother Oscar an International furnace to heat their office building. It will require 1000 square inches of air to heat the lodge hall above their office.

Ex-postmaster Fred Elfring has bought two International furnaces of Oscar Franzen. A pipeless furnace to heat the store and post-office and a pipe furnace to heat his residence.

Center Theatre will give away free a 15 lb. turkey Wednesday, Nov. 24. One chance with every admission ticket. Holder of the lucky number (?) must be in the theatre at time of drawing to win.

Switchman Beleva who resides at Franklin Park but is employed in the Bensenville yards had his leg broken Tuesday evening. After cutting a public crossing so the traffic could proceed he was accidentally struck by a passing auto which he was informed did not stop to assist the injured man. He was taken by another auto to Washington Blvd. hospital where his broken limb was taken care of by company doctors. It really seems that when a man has parted his train to let autos pass, and one of them had accidentally knocked him down that the least they could do would be to ascertain whether or not the man was injured before driving off and leaving him.

George Korthauer who is still in the Elmhurst hospital nursing a broken leg, is reported getting along nicely and will be out in a short time.

The board of public works have recommended four and one half miles of paving in Bensenville this coming year. Business streets will be forty foot wide and residential streets thirty foot. The program will include all the business streets and the most thickly populated residential streets. This is a move to lift Bensenville out of the mud and place her on solid footing. This alone ought to double the population of this beautiful suburban town. Without a doubt the village board will act favorably on the recommendation of the committee.

Word comes to relatives of Martin Wolf who was accidentally shot in the foot while out hunting, that he is recovering rapidly. Although amputation of the foot was necessary his strong will power enabled him to stand the shock extremely well.

crops would be only waste. Two canning companies in Hoopston had plowed and tilled during spring and summer about 15,000 acres of sweet corn. Farmers, who sell them corn, had grown another 5,000 acres.

They were disturbed when, as the picking season came, floods poured into their level acres and the waters stood waist high. But man is hard to beat and the army of pickers waded into the fields. All day they toiled in the cold water and soft mud.

When the wagons were loaded it required six and eight-mule teams to get them out. The animals tugged those wagons to the concrete roads. Twenty-five rubber wheeled tractors came to the rescue and the wagons were made up into five wagon trains on the hard highways.

Men who risked sickness, who toiled long hours in distress, who broke roads and gasoline saved the crop—or the most of it, "said one of the packers to me. "It cost us a heap of money but, well—I guess we were saved financially for the loss of the crop would have meant bankruptcy."

It was a big job. One company operated 220 wagons to get the corn to the plant. And the packer added this bit of information:

Either one of the two plants here packs more corn yearly than any other plant anywhere."

If you look inside your can after the corn is emptied, if the can comes from Hoopston, you will find something else. For this year, for the first time, the inside of the Hoopston cans are enameled. That's to give you a prettier corn. Beauty in manufacture has extended even to corn.

There is a trace of sulphur in sweet corn. The action of sulphur on tin is chemical. It has meant a slight darkening of the golden-white meat of the corn. It does not hurt it at all, chemists say, but it is not so pretty.

So after years of experiment a way has been found to keep the corn free of this slight discoloration. The thin surface of grayish enamel, baked on under intense heat, means that the corn never touches the tin. And something more is done to please the buyer.

The great corn-canning industry in Hoopston began a half century ago in a very small way. First only a farmer or two grew the corn and it was canned in makeshift plants. For years all of the machinery was made locally—because there was no place to buy it.

Then about forty-five years ago a "down east Yankee," Welcome Sprague by name, came to Hoopston from Farmham, N. Y. He set out, in a small way, to manufacture canning machinery. Today that plant has grown into the great Sprague-Sells Corp.

It makes any kind of canning machinery wanted and ships all over the world. Special machines are designed for any purpose. They are made to operate under the "continuous" plan. Belts and chains and moving "sidewalks" keep the cans in steady motion. They never stop during the process.

When a can moves into an oven or heating chamber it keeps going, slowly under the heat, and comes out cooked. The speed of the moving parts regulates the time under heat. And today everything imaginable—canned—except oranges and lemons, perhaps, for no way has been found to can satisfactorily these citrus fruits. I said everything is canned. I meant almost that for even fertilizer, they told me at the plant, is now being canned for certain special purposes.

The company was surprised a few months ago when it was asked to design a machine for "filling" tins with fruit cake dough. Here was a new idea. For the making of fruit cakes, in large quantities, with citrus and raisins and nuts and all that goes into fruit cakes, had become an industry of large proportions.

The manufacturers set about it. After a time a machine took form that today is filling from forty to fifty fruit cake tins, ready for the bake ovens, per minute. Some products are canned at the rate of 120 cans a minute per machine.

I mentioned that the rains this year created another problem. Heavy rains meant heavy moisture content in all field crops. Canning plants were quickly in trouble. Early batches, at canneries all over the country, did not turn out well. Some of them spoiled.

By experiments it was found that with the added moisture content the materials, no matter what, and whether raised in Ohio or Illinois or Colorado—for it has been a wet year everywhere—had been cooked longer and under more heat. But it was done.

I had heard of this in an individual plant or two but I had to go to Hoopston to find that the problem was general. For only at Hoopston could I find men who had their fingers on the pulse of the nation's canning industry. This is the center, the capital of Canningdom. The quality, texture and taste, they tell me, as a result is the best ever known.

You may ask if this canning industry is really a big business. You may be convinced when I tell you that the other day the Sprague-Sells Corp., of Hoopston, gave one order for 250 tons of steel to go into canning machines. Hoopston has made its imprint on the canning industry in other ways. Take the case of H. W. Phelps, president of the American Can company with great plants scattered all over the country. Here was a Hoopston boy, got his start here with the Union Can company, of Hoopston, an important plant in its beginning but a unit of the American Can company now. It is the plant I told you about that can make 3,000 completed cans in Franklin Park Dept.

Edw. Hennessey has severed business relations with the I. H. B. R. R.

Mr. V. J. Killoran entertained a number of friends from Kohomo, Ind., at the Mannheim Tavern Sunday evening.

We notice Eugene Flynn romping around in a new headpiece, not to insinuate, we believe he attended a dance at the J. P. I.

Edw. McNabb well known in political affairs in this vicinity has been appointed by the village board as assistant to chief of police, Edw. Cratz. He has been known as a hustler and therefore is most deserving of this position.

Harry Rush of Dieke, Rush, & Hainsworth Trio is promenading around in a new coupe. Some class to Mr. Rush.

We were all stunned to see Ed. (Wal) Shannon touring in his powerful Studebaker.

We would like to know if the officials of the village would care to trounce in mud up to their ankles as some of us have to do every time we go out.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Martens spent Saturday evening with their son Roland in Berwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Draper announce the birth of a son, Nov. 7. Mrs. A. B. Kirchhoff and Mr. I. H. Schoffers are enjoying a visit from their brother and his wife of Portland, Ore.

Sibert Martens friends are glad to know he has gone to Springfield to take his final examinations for admission to the state bar. Here's our best wishes for success "SI."

Make out your list of Christmas gifts and come to the gift sale at the M. E. church, Wednesday, Dec. 1.

Mrs. Grace E. Ellinwood of Chicago formerly of Franklin Park was appointed head of the Parent Teachers Association by the principal of the Mont Clare school.

The choir of the Community one minute when going all speed ahead. Mr. Phelps lives in New York but often "comes back home."

For fifty years or more certain ways have called Hoopston the Holy City. Should you go to the Dearborn street railway station in Chicago today and ask for a ticket to the Holy City, the ticket agent without hesitation, probably would hand you a past board giving passage to Hoopston.

That name was applied in jocularity in the beginning because there never has been a saloon in Hoopston. Those who laid out the town on prairie land saw to that and it is in the titles and deeds. Hoopston beat the Rev. Vol. Hoopston to it by a lifetime or two. And Hoopston takes pride in the fact.

The salary of the mayor of Hoopston is fifty cents a year, by ordinance, and the alderman get twenty-five cents a year. The city has $50,000 in its treasury. At times it has been loaned its surplus money to its own business people at interest.

Yes, romance, adventure, prosperity, development, important human events—all these things and many more—can come to a tin can. The next time you prod a tin can with the sharp point of a tin opener think of Hoopston, home of 6,000 people, a city built on tin cans and canned foodstuffs, the Holy City in Vermilion county, Illinois.

(This is the seventy-seventh of a series of articles written for the Illinois Chamber of Commerce entitled "Re-discovering Illinois." Their purpose is to benefit, build and develop Illinois as a whole. The next will be published soon.)

ADDISON

Miss Ida Scharringhausen of Leadville, Colo., is a guest at the Braeckenfeller family for a few weeks.

Bill Treichler and Otto Moeller motored to Chicago Saturday night to get a glimpse of the Royal beauty, "Princess Ileana." They did.

Since the pheasant shooting season opened and all the fields were being combed by anxious hunters, flocks of the birds come marching into town here as though seeking protection from some real rifle cracksmen.

The Pink Rash is doing its stuff here since cold weather set in. Only mild cases have been reported thus far.

Everybody here seems to be eating Botterman's Bockhosenwurst, this season. Wonder why?

Ed. Rotermund caught a 60 lb. Washbear in the woods near here while he was dining in a large hollow stump Saturday afternoon.

Very shortly he will introduce it to his giant Angora cat "Kid Malm" hoping that they will make friends.

Somebody else will have to raise steam now for Addison dinky while it roosts here overnight, as Mr. Brown our engine man will leave us soon.

Miss Teklya Buerger daughter of Prof. Buerger become seriously ill with pneumonia last Friday.

Fritz Salge, exHrman Kaenapple and Heinrich Sauck all retired farmers from near Elmhurst surprised Mr. Edward Graue Sunday afternoon. They were neighbors while farming from 1850 to 1900.

They recalled the day when they walked to Chicago to see the big fire there in '71.

Max Seiffah will show us some fancy ice skating as soon as the ponds permit.

Butch Zimmerman motored to Wisconsin Sunday and got a fresh supply of cranberries right from the bogs.

church have commenced practicing on a Christmas cantata called, "Peace on Earth." This promises to be a very beautiful selection.

Dr. Dodge had a very neat one car garage built on the property he purchased recently from R. F. Potts. He is also having the back porch enclosed which adds greatly to the appearance of the house.

Mrs. George Berry Jr., of Chicago visited the family of George Berry Sr., Monday. They are thinking of moving back to Franklin Park.

Miss Maurine Marr of Elgin spent the week-end with her cousin Miss Ruth Wasson.

The Operetta given Friday evening in the public school auditorium was well attended, and was very enjoyable. It showed that a great deal of time and effort had been spent upon it.

After three days of rain on Rose street after it was dug up for paving it is surely in bad condition, and we understand the pavers have quit work for the winter. This means that Rose street will become passable about next May.

A load of cinders on the Gage avenue crossing, and crushed stone at Belmont avenue have relieved the condition some for pedestrians, but as far as automobiles are concerned the residents of Rose street are marooned in their yards.

Mrs. Laufer reports a generous amount of coins received in her "cans" on Tag day for the disabled ex-service men. We are glad that the public responded so liberally to this worthy cause, for the disabled men "pay" every day that they live.

The G. G. Girls met with Miss Ruth Wasson Tuesday evening.

A public achievement meeting was held at the public school auditorium Tuesday evening. These meetings are held in every Cook County school outside of Chicago under the auspices of the county superintendent's office. It is the opinion of many that the time taken up in this achievement work should be used in perfecting the three R's, which are necessarily neglected to make room for the fifty-seventy varieties of Achievement projects.

Mrs. S. F. Radel returned Wednesday morning from Albuquerque, N. M., where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. F. Wasson.

Wm. Britton and family will move into the Bailey house, corner Wagner and Minneapolis streets.

The Cundiff Brothers, Wallace and Bob, and the former's family, are visiting at their old home in Kentucky, enjoying the hunting season there.

Friends of Miss Florence White are sorry to learn that she is very critically ill.

The McCall family returned Saturday from two weeks sojourn in Florida. They were lucky in escaping our first winter weather.

Mud! Mud! Mud! seas of it and the kind that "sticketh closer than a brother."

Two ladies lost not only their rubbers but their shoes too in crossing Schiller. Couldn't we have a few cinders to help a little.

The Minstrel Show to be given by the high school early in December will be a treat. Be sure to secure a ticket early and besides giving yourself a treat help the Leyden Athletic Association.

Mrs. Ed. Ruff of Franklin Park was a visitor here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burns and daughter Shirley visited friends in Chicago Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Baumheart of Eden, Wis., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. N. P. Kierig on Prairie ave.

Mrs. Herman Werth entertained a party of friends at her home on Prairie avenue Thursday afternoon Buncos and prizes after which a delicious lunch was served and much enjoyed by everyone present after which the guests departed for their homes having spent a pleasant afternoon.

Sunday morning services will be held in St. Beatrice new Catholic church at 8 o'clock with Rev. A. Milcheski as pastor.

The ladies of the M. E. church have postponed their sale and supper to Dec. 1, where they will have many pretty articles for sale, also promises a very fine supper for the small sum of 50 cents a plate.

River Grove Dept.

W. R. RIDGE LOCAL EDITOR

L. A. and E. A. Ryan of River Forest and J. Sather of Elmhurst have formed the Ryan Bros., and Sather mortgage corporation with offices at 261 Lake street, River Forest and 125 York street, Elmhurst. The new concern will make and sell mortgages, securities and bond issues.

MT. PROSPECT

Watch It Grow
F. L. H. LUEDERS, Editor

Tuesday evening our village board held a special meeting to consider bids on the new pump. After considerable thought and investigation it was decided to purchase a Keystone Driller Co. Downey Pump with silent chain drive equipped so that auxiliary power can be used should something happen to the electric current. This pump was highly recommended and was purchased at the price of $2180. Another item that will save our village considerable is the new tractor that is being purchased from H. F. Meyer. This tractor will be used in street work as well as a power unit.

The appeal board had a park question up with the village board on the centralwood subdivision. The owners of this property have set aside a small parcel of ground as a playground for this subdivision.

We are to continue in the use of the present style and manufacture of Fire Hydrants is the opinion of our board of local improvements. After an extensive investigation of a dozen different makes of hydrants and it was to this effect that the contractors on the north side water extension were notified.

The village board is also looking out for the interest of the citizens and has instructed the engineer to see that the drains are put in as fast as possible to give those who need relief an outlet for their drainage.

Elroy Pohlman had quite a serious accident a week ago in that he fell cutting his face to such an extent that Dr. Koester was obliged to put in four stitches.

Edward Pohlman is down in bed again. This time he has a serious case of pneumonia, we surely hope he recovers and will be out among us again soon.

We are indeed pleased to see the new manufacturing firm in our midst and hope that they are as well pleased with their new factory as we are with having them in our village. The Crofoot Co., is quite a progressive firm and make the right kind of an addition to the City of Prospect.

The bunco party given by the ladies of the A. L. L. was very successful and the children had quite a time at their own tables, this is a real organization and it is worthy of our support.

John Gors is busy at the new pump house and from all indications will have this job completed in record time. This will give the pump men plenty of time to get the pump in place and working before the first of the year. This will help out the chief so he can keep our water supply in good shape without working as hard as what he was compelled to recently.

From every angle of the business centers in our village we receive reports of good business which naturally indicates a prosperous village. Our merchants are all happy and pleased with their work. Trading at home is a benefit not only to the merchants but also to the citizens and as the merchants are all a part of our community as well as we it is up to us to support them in every possible way. Trade at home and save yourself is what we should all do.

Our president William Buse has returned from his short trip for a rest and is as active as ever. Always on the job looking here and there to see that things are right interested in the village and protecting it at every turn, truly we are happy to see him back and looking so good.

John Vondrasek is the latest newcomer to Mt. Prospect he will live in Prospect Park subdivision next to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mead.

The second home on Prospect Manor avenue is being rushed to completion so that the owners may occupy it this year.

Mrs. Dunterman has been quite sick and we hope she will be up and around soon.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is given hereby that a public hearing will be held at the Village Hall at Mount Prospect, Ill., December 6, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of changing certain boundary lines as now laid down in what is known as Ordinance No. 52. The property to be affected by this proposed change is now known as the Centralwood subdivision.

Dated at Mt. Prospect this 17th day of November, 1926.

A. H. FLESCHE, Sec.

Murphy had a queer little Irish fellow named McGinnis working for him. Now, Murphy had a contract with a steamship company to remove a ledge of rock from under one of their piers, so that they could have a greater depth of water in which to berth their ships. He put McGinnis on the job.

It was the first time McGinnis had ever worn a diver's suit. Anyway, he was lowered under the water with a pick in his hands and told to tackle the ledge.

He hadn't been down ten minutes when there came a tug at the signal line, showing that McGinnis wanted to come up. They pulled him up and took off his helmet.

"Take off th' rist uv ut!" said McGinnis.

"Why, phwat's th' matter?" asked the foreman.

"Take off th' rist uv ut!" said McGinnis again. "Oif wor-rk no longer on a job where Oi can't spit on me hands!"

FINAL SPECIAL ASSESSMENT NOTICE

In the matter of the special assessment of the Village of Itasca for an improvement consisting of a system of cast iron water mains in Seminary Avenue, First Street, and other streets in the Village of Itasca, DuPage County, Illinois, Itasca Special Assessment Warrant No. 3.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all persons interested that the Board of Local Improvements of said Village has heretofore filed in said Court in said cause a certificate showing the cost of the work, the lawful expenses attending the making, levying and collecting of the assessment and making of the improvement and also that the improvement has been constructed in substantial conformity to the requirements of the original ordinance therefor.

The hearing to consider and determine whether or not the facts as stated in said certificate are true will be held in said Court on the 22nd day of November, A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock A. M. or as soon thereafter as the business of the Court will permit.

All persons desiring may file objections in said court before said day, and may appear on the hearing and make their defense.

BOARD OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS.

By William Chessman, Secretary Dated, Itasca, Illinois, November 3, A. D. 1926.

Aiben F. Bates, Attorney.

DO WE WANT PEACE?

ARMISTICE DAY ADDRESS DELIVERED BY REV. STANTON, Pastor of Glenview M. E. Church

Eight years ago the nations of the world were at each others throats. It is not necessary to name the nations that were on the one side or the other. The thing that we did not see then is that the alignment of the nations was the last important thing about the whole tragedy. We thought then that it was natural that we were on the side we were, and that certain other nations were allied together and aligned against us. We see now that the conditions that placed us where we were then were purely artificial. There was no fundamental logic one way or the other. The important thing, which makes more tragic that tragedy, was that we thought that war could get us out of our troubles. We know now that war brings us in. It does not lead out. It is based on hatred and suspicion, and these never lead to peace. The great mistake was that the nations of the world were so far from God that they thought that war, the impiment of the Devil, could lead us to the Kingdom of Heaven.

And another part of the tragedy, that we are beginning to see, is that the war is not over. The war isn't "Over over there." We are hearing of anyone celebrating the signing of the peace? No, because there is no peace. We are still in a state of armistice. We are not going to fight right away, but we have not taken those steps which shall insure that we may have peace. When the young men had fought, as they were told, to make the world safe for Democracy, laying down their lives for the noblest ideals, the old men, who made the war and told the lies, got together and made a thing they called peace, based upon continued hatreds, and suspicions and suppressions, and national jealousies, and denying every claim of Democracy and admitting among themselves that the ideals in the name of which they had summoned the young men to fight, were real, and were impossible in a practical world. They did not make peace. They have been busy ever since, in unmaking that document, so far as it from the wishes and hopes of the people whom they represented. Finally they have admitted Germany into the League of Nations, but they have not untold the lies about Germany being the cause of the War—a lie which was told because it would lead them in arousing our youth for self-forgetful service and sacrifice. We talk about peace but we do not have peace. Peace comes to nations, only when it exists in the minds and spirits of the peoples of the earth.

The war psychology is even yet strangling our hearts. Here in America we are just beginning to get out from under the post-war excitement which led to the formation of the K. K. K. the intolerance of which generated intolerance in many an other organization. And that same excitement recently registered itself in the Japanese exclusion section of the last immigration bill. And some of the great news papers are urging us to go down to the republic at the south and subjugate it, for the sake of civilization, and because we are afraid of her. More lies. It is because certain capitalists of America resent the fact that the Mexican government no longer allow foreigners to rob her unmolested. In Europe, there is no peace. Nation is afraid of nation. The race for armaments is on again, and that means war, again, and not peace. The Americans were willing to sacrifice eight years ago for the peace of the world. They have been unwilling since then to sacrifice sufficiently to save Armenia, or to sacrifice in order to join the League of Nations the only great effort being made today to find a way out. The war cost the world about 10,000,000 dead and about 40,000,000 maimed and wounded, but it has cost the world more than that. Its real curse is what it has cost us spiritually. It has seemed to cost us the power to think clearly, or calmly or with love toward others, without which the world will never have peace.

We fought, as we were taught by the old men who made the war to make the world safe for democracy, but there is less of it today than there was before the war. Some people look to Russia, because of the overthrow of the Czaristic regime, as showing a victory for democracy. They point to the work of the revolutionary government for the people as another proof of the same thing, but that is not democracy. It is paternalism, and it is worse. It is despotism of another kind—despotism of masters, who are just as careful of protecting their powers as the old rule. Cavour was the greatest statesman of the last half of the nineteenth century. In his heart was conceived, and in his efforts were consummated, the unification of Italy, freeing the Italian people from the despotism of the papacy. If he could return to earth today, I am sure he would not believe his senses as he would see the way in which his compatriots have given up their rights to a despot who has nothing to offer them in return save economic advantage. In other European countries, and especially in Turkey, Greece and Spain, monarchy has strengthened its hold upon the people, weakened and impoverished as they are by the war, and engrossed in the unbelievable labors of reconstruction. In America, we are not yet free from the throttling of our liberties guaranteed to us in the constitution, of free speech, and free assemblage and a free press. Democracy, if war is her friend, has suffered unspeakable desecrations at the hands of her friend.

There are evidences, however, that the facts which I have named, are not all of the picture. There is a growing number of people who are coming to realize what is war, and who are beginning to feel that it has something to say about the wars which it must fight. The youth movements of Europe and China and Japan, and South America and the United States, inasmuch as we can be said to have a Youth Movement, are taking themselves seriously, and are saying in their study courses and conventions that there must be no more wars. These youths will one day rule the world, and then they will be done with. And older people who have studied this late war are uniting in the cry of those first days after the war, "It must never happen again." Those who are maimed and injured have had enough. We want peace. How sincerely we want it, is the only question. Sir Walter Raleigh, late professor of English Literature at Oxford college, lost a son in the war. He speaks of the challenge to all the future of the sacrifice of the young men who gave their lives for the peace of the world. He adds, "It will have to be a wonderful future to be worthy of such a price." Would to God that such an outcry might be unanimous.

The spectacle of some of the members of the "Central board of the Veterans and Military Organizations" recently protesting against the "blatant pacifism" of Isaiah 24 on a war memorial in Plainfield, N. J., is not very complimentary to the good sense of America, if their sentiment represents America, which I claim is not the case. The words from the prophet Isaiah are these: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." If that is not the dream of the world, for the future, what do we look forward to? If America is not sufficiently idealistic to accept the hopes of Isaiah, what shall we expect for the message of Jesus, who came to bring Peace on Earth, and bade men to build the Kingdom of Heaven right here on earth, now, and who died on the cross, rather than to be untrue to the method of love as the supreme method of life? Jesus was killed because he was a radical, and dangerous to the peace of the existing government and its spiritual impotence. He wanted peace, when the leaders of the people wanted war, and the conditions which lead to war. We must be careful in preaching Jesus, if Isaiah is not wanted.

The hope of the world is just in this, that men are turning to Jesus as the divine revealer of the Father's will, and as the only one in all human history who does point us to a way out of the ills of the world. We are asking him again to speak peace to the spirits of men, and point them to the love of God, which claims all peoples and nations.

I cannot think of those who died in the last war, and those who still carry in their bodies and in their minds the scars of that awful holocaust, without pledging myself to them, that I shall do everything in my power to vindicate their belief that in the name of Jesus they were fighting to end wars, and that "peace on earth, and good will to all men" may become something more than the empty dream of impractical idealists.

I enlisted in that war, in Evans-ton, in May 1917, and only Almighty God, Lord of Lords and King of Kings shall muster me out of that warfare. By the grace of God, I shall try to live as they fought and died, to make their dreams come true.

E. Lester Stanton,
Glenview, Ill.

NORTHFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Bubert and children Floyd Stanger and family spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mrs. F. Schaffer of Barrington.

Mr. Maurice Miller spent Sunday afternoon in Chicago.

Mr. Ed. Witt is home again after spending several weeks in North Dakota on a hunting trip. He is spending several days with his nephew Ed. Bach and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Meredith and son John Jr., of Chicago, Mr. Orin Yenerich of Lake Forest, Miss Flossie Dobbins of Deerfield had Sunday dinner with Harry Johnson and family.

Miss Ethelyn Bestor entertained the young peoples circle Monday evening. 16 young folks were present.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Edna Hubbard is still on the sick list. We miss her very much in church and other places she was used to going to.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemper and family are nicely settled in their new home near Palatine.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Trier of Rogers Park called on his mother, Mrs. H. Trier last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dobbins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and daughter drove to Chicago Wednesday evening to the Lockwood avenue church to hear Rev. Brandenfelder speak.

Northfield Evan. Church

Cor. of Dundee and Sanders Rds. Thanksgiving services will be held next Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Message by the pastor. Special music.

Evening worship at 7:45. Sunday school at 11:00. Classes for all ages and sizes.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00. Come and help make this service the best by your presence and participation.

Prayer meeting and song practice on Friday evening, beginning at 7:30.

We invite the public to attend all our services.

C. F. Schriver, Minister.

EAST MAINE

English service at St. Matthews Lutheran church Sunday, Nov. 21 at regular time of 10 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kath moved, Nov. 10 into their newly remodeled home on Dempster St. The house has been enlarged and modernized in every respect and a cozy home is the result.

The teachers of the public school attended a teachers institute held in Evanston, Monday, Nov. 15 and consequently there was no school here that day. This meeting was held for all the teachers in divisions one, two and three.

The bunco party given by St. Matthews Ladies Aid last weekend was again a successful venture. The hall was filled to capacity Friday night and excitement waxed high as the game grew more interesting from time to time. Although the rainy weather Saturday night kept some of the folks at home the attendance was almost as large as the previous night and just as good a time was enjoyed.

Tickets and posters are out and in the course of distribution for "The Path Across the Hill" the play to be given under the auspices of the local of the Cook County Truck Gardeners and Farmers Association, four evenings, Dec. 9, 10, 11 and 12. The play will be given in St. Matthews school hall, on Milwaukee ave., north of Ballard road. The cast includes practically the same players who took part last year and the year previous and they are working harder than ever to not only make this play as good as the two previous ones, but to make it a whole lot better. They are going to do their very best to please you, their audience, and only ask that you follow "The Path Across the Hill" to an evening of wholesome enjoyment and amusement and then judge for yourself.

Elmer Kath has replaced his Ford coupe with a classy Tudor sedan, wire wheels and everything. Talk about class.

A number of East Mainites attended the birthday celebration November 16 of their old friend, Mrs. John Schwing of Des Plaines.

The flag on the East Maine high way police station was flying at half mast Tuesday in mourning for the county's treasurer, Mr. P. J. Carr who died early that morning. Mr. Carr's death, the result of severe illness, followed shortly on his overwhelming victory as sheriff for Cook county and it was a shock to the entire populace. Prior to the recent election Mr. Carr's campaign took him out into the country towns, where at political meetings and social gatherings he met face to face the people who elected him sheriff. Forgetting party differences and thinking only of Carr the man, his reputation and character were such that his name was spoken always with the highest respect. He was a true and loyal friend to all classes and one of the most influential leaders in the county. His death is deplored by citizens all over the county.

Don't forget the bunco party to be given by the Knights of Columbus No. 1949, at St. Gertrude's hall, Tuesday evening, Nov. 23 at 8 p. m. There will be many beautiful prizes awarded.

Want To Buy! !

1000 Spring
Chickens

No leghorns taken. Must be healthy. Will pay market price day of sale. Phone Palatine 16-W-1.

WHEELING

Mrs. C. Welfin and Miss A. Ambrose returned to the city on Monday where they will spend the winter with Mrs. Harry Fleisch.

Mr. Richard Schmidt returned from a hunt for big game in Ontario, Can., last week. He tells of many interesting experiences and brought a quarter of moose with him as a trophy of the hunt.

The Conrad Reeb family have moved into their home on Dundee road this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schultz entertained a group of relatives and friends in honor of their 5th wedding anniversary on Tuesday evening Nov. 9.

Don't forget the Home Bakery and home made candy sale to be held in the Presbyterian church parlor on Saturday, Nov. 20. Sale begins at 2:00 p. m. Proceeds to benefit the Sabbath school.

The annual bazaar and card party of Wheeling Chapter O. E. S. will be held at the Riverside Inn on Friday evening, Nov. 26. Card playing starts at 8 p. m. Admission 50c which includes refreshments.

The annual Red Cross roll call is now on. Don't wait for some dreadful disaster to open your pursestrings. Remember the Red Cross is continually ministering to the "poor and the needy whom we have with us always."

At the regular meeting of the F. T. A. on Monday evening plans were made for a public card party to be held on Wednesday evening Dec. 8.

BABCOCK, The Dentist

Plates $20 and up
Crowns $8 per tooth
Extractions $1.00

Why Pay Excessive Prices for Dental Work?

QUALITY, SERVICE, VALUE

All Work Guaranteed

KINDER BLDG. PHONE 5062

Floral Designs for

Weddings, Funerals and all Special Occasions

CHAS. J. HOMEYER, Florist

Main and Central Road

Phone 375-M Mt. Prospect

We pay telephone charges on phone orders.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

All Work Done Painlessly

DR. H. L. JONES

DENTIST

Phone 267

MT. PROSPECT, ILL.

Over Drug Store

HOURS: 9:00 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Tuesdays and Thursdays

FRANK FORKE

Funeral Director and Embalmer

Lady Attendant If Desired

WHEELING, ILLINOIS

Phone Wheeling 46-J

FRANK SCHOTT

Painting and Decorating

PAPER HANGING

SIGN PAINTING

Tel. Mt. Prospect 345-J

Mt. Prospect, Ill.

H. F. HELLER, M. D.

1498 Miner St.

DES PLAINES, ILL.

HOURS:

9-10 a. m.-1-2 p. m.-5:30-8 p. m.

PHONES: Office 1451; Res. 1452

Sun. and Holl. by Appointment

DR. A. HARMENING

VETERINARIAN

DES PLAINES, ILLINOIS

Phone 1541

LOUISE KOESTER M. D.

Physician and Surgeon

Office: Over drug store

Ph. Mt. Prospect 314

Hours 9 to 11 a. m., daily

7 to 9 p. m. on Mon., Fri., Sat.

Chicago Office

25 E. Wash. St.

Suite 1915, Ph. Cent. 8160

Hours Wed., 3 to 5 p. m.

A Ready Reserve and a Profitable Investment in One:

—Our Certificates of Deposit, which can be used in place of cash if necessary at their full face value and without "red tape," yet draw liberal interest from the day they are issued.

Buy them anytime, in amounts to suit your convenience.

Mount Prospect State Bank

Mount Prospect, Ill.

Your Thanksgiving

will naturally be a day of Thanksgiving and the day on which your biggest meal will be of Poultry.

For the best choice and selection we advise early ordering of your

DUCKS, GEESE OR TURKEY

The present is the time to make your plans for this day and also to order whatever you want for Thanksgiving Dinner, if something is a puzzle. Come to your Food Purveyor with your Food Troubles. We shall be pleased to help you solve them.

Fred Meeske

The Quality and Service Food Purveyor

For Food Phone 41

Mt. Prospect, Ill.

Radio Season is here

This is the season of the year to get your Radio so you may enjoy the Winter evenings entertainment in your own pleasant home.

You can choose either of the following Radios and receive just what you want. Come in and hear them.

NEUTRGWOUND

GLOBE

CROSLEY

You can secure all your Tubes, Batteries and Accessories at this store as we carry a complete line of Radio equipment, in fact we have just what you need to make your set ready for instant receiving of entertainment furnished by the Radio artists. We have a set for you that you will like. Come in and get a demonstration which is absolutely free at Mt. Prospect's Radio Headquarters.

William Busse & Son

(Incorporated)

"We Serve the Home Maker Best by Serving the Builder Right"

PHONE: Mt. Prospect 185 MT. PROSPECT, ILL.

The New Essex

The new 4-door Essex sedan with mohair upholstery and many other new features now on display at this remarkable low price, makes this refined six cylinder sedan the most attractive value that has ever been offered in automobile history. If you are thinking of buying an automobile, you owe it to yourself to see this wonderful value, before making a selection.

Prices:

4-door Essex sedan $795 Hudson Spec. coach $1145

Essex coach $695 Hudson Brougham coach $1395

Hudson coach $1095 Hudson sedan $1495

FOR DEMONSTRATION CALL

HERMAN BEHRENS MOTOR SALES

Phone Mt. Prospect 197 Mount Prospect, Ill.

Prosperous Thanksgiving

With the closing of a year of unusual prosperity this bank wishes to extend greetings to its friends and patrons and to wish them a glad Thanksgiving season and to thank its friends for their patronage in the past and solicit a continuance for the future.

Wheeling State Bank

WHEELING, ILLINOIS

HERE'S VALUE

in Suits and O'coats for Thanksgiving

$40

Values because Styles are Right

AUCTION SALES

FRED DOMKOWSKY

Will sell at public auction at the corner of Euclid Ave. and Wilke Road, 1 mile west of Arlington Heights, 3/4 mile south of North-west highway.

Sale commences at 10 a. m. sharp.

Livestock

23 Holstein cows, 5 fresh milkers with calf by side, rest heavy springers and milkers, 1 registered stock bull, 2 years old; these cows are all tested and under state and federal supervision and sold on a 60 day return guarantee. Black team, wt. 2900, 8 and 12 years; Buckskin mare, wt. 1600, 10 years old.

Feed

25 tons baled timothy hay, 5 tons baled upland hay, 5 tons clover hay in stack, 800 bu. oats, 29 a. of good clean fodder corn in shock.

Fordson tractor, Tandem disc, J.

Over Half a Century in Chicago Telephone Central 1824

THE EDGAR A. ROSSITER CO.

CIVIL ENGINEERS

160 N. La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

Water Works, Sewage, Tunnels, Mining, Drainage, Pavements

For Sale!

Lots in Burns Addition to Arlington Heights. On Highland Avenue, two blocks from new school.

Kuntz Realty Co.

Exclusive Agents

Tel. 241

Arlington Heights

We Offer

subject to prior sale

Arlington Heights

6%

Paying Bonds

Paying makes better property.

Better property behind the Bonds makes Paying Bonds

Better Bonds

Also See Us On First Mortgages Secured by Local

Property

The Redeker Co.

(Not Inc.)

H. F. REDEKER

Registered under Ill. Securities Law
Investment and Insurance Dept.

Phone 116-J

Arlington Heights, Ill.

Bargains in Real Estate

FOR SALE—5-room bungalow. Oak and gumwood trim, furnace heat, fireplace and book cases, 2-car garage. Lot 50x132 ft. All improv. in. Price $8,500. Easy terms.

FOR SALE—5-room brick bungalow. Oak trim, fireplace and book cases. Tile bath and shower. Hot water heat, 2-car brick garage (heated). Lot 50x132 ft. All improv. in. 4 bks. from station. Price $10,500. $2,000 cash. Balance terms.

FOR SALE—8 brick bungalows. 5 rooms each. Gumwood trim, and oak floors, furnace heat. Lot 50x132 ft. With all improvements in. Price $7,800. Easy terms.

FOR SALE—Choice building lot in east side sub. 66x132 ft. With all improv. in and paid in full. Bargain $2,400.

FOR SALE—4 choice buildin g lots, 50x132 ft. each, 4 bks. from station. All improv. in. Bargain $1,400.

FOR SALE—Excellent homesite 50x132 ft. 4 bks. from station. All improv. in. Price, $1,000.

For particulars apply to,

WALTER KRAUSE, JR.

"The Suburban Realtor"

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL. Phone Arlington Heights 252

WANTED!

All or part time

Salesmen & Salesladies

To Sell

Homes-Farms-Lots

Opportunity for conscientious workers to make big money. We are local agents for the finest subdivision properties in Palatine.

"The Real Home Town"

Apply to

HUNNERBERG & WEBER
REALESTATORS

Phone 3

Palatine, Ill.

Henry Wise

PROTECTION, YER NECK!

MR. WISE, A MAN LIKE YOU NEEDS PROTECTION

I'LL WASTE NO MORE COIN ON FIRE INSURANCE.

YOU'RE THE BIGGEST GRATER IN THIS TOWN. GET OUT O' HERE AN' QUIT STEALIN' MY TIME AN' BEGINN' MY MONEY.

I SAID NO!

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

THERE WASN'T ANY USE O' THAT BIRD TALKIN' TO ME. I HICKED 'IM CLEAR ACROSS THE STREET! THEY CAN'T KID ME ANY MORE WITH SOB-STUFF AN' ST-STATICS. I'LL CARRY MY OWN RISK! THIS HOUSE AIN'T BURNED DOWN YET, HAS IT?

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN LOSE! I'M ENTIRELY PERFECTED GENTLEMEN, AN' WILL REBUILD AT ONCE. TAKE MY ADVICE, GENTLEMEN

IM ALWAYS AFRAID OF FIRE

ILL HAVE INSURANCE IN SPIE OF HENRY, I'M SO GLAD I FOUND MR. HUCKLE-SNAPS AD. HELL BRING ME A GOOD POLICY TOMORROW

FIRE! FIRE! IT'S THE HENRY WISE HOUSE—AN' IT'S A HUMDINGER!

I ALWAYS SAID THAT FIRE INSURANCE IS A SAFE AN' SANE INVESTMENT. YOU NEVER CAN

Northbrook Section

EMILY THERRIEN, Editor

Mrs. Karen Augard and daughter, Lena presented a beautiful silk pillow when they called on the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Leuth.

Dr. and Mrs. John J. Boyce enjoyed a pleasant Sunday dinner at the Palmer House, Chicago.

The H. Therrien family enjoyed the wonder play last Tuesday evening at the Great Northern Theatre "The Vagabond King."

Mrs. Emil Barnhoft and daughter, Dorothy, are staying with relatives at Highland Park.

Don't forget the date Nov. 21. A big minstrel show will be given by the Northshore Glee Club of Winnetka at St. Norbert's hall. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Fred Bremer, who has been very sick at the hospital is rapidly improving daily.

Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Hipsley and Mr. and Mrs. Wessling enjoyed the chicken dinner given by the Deerfield Men's club at the Masonic Temple last week.

Charles Therrien and his brother attended the Loyola Football game on Armistice Day.

The G. Schick family were the Sunday supper guests of the Teschner family.

Loretta Selzer is home from the hospital and getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Therrien and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gartner report a pleasant time at the Granada last Thursday evening.

Only a few more days before Thanksgiving. Be sure to send your reports of the day to Northbrook 73, Mrs. Henry Therrien. Your friends like to read the accounts and several of the subscribers cut them out and keep them for pleasant memories.

Miss Clara Seul has been quite sick with an attack of pneumonia. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Be sure to attend the dance given by the P. T. A. on November 27, for the purpose of raising money to give a Christmas party for the school children. A good time is assured.

Mrs. R. Teschner and Mrs. G. Schick attended the bridge club last Thursday at Chicago. Mrs. Martens was the hostess.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. H. Therrien were hosts at a goose dinner at 6 p. m. last Sunday in honor of their 21st wedding anniversary. They had as guests her sisters and families, the E. J. Hoffman family of Wilmette and the C. H. Alsips of Evanston. The table and room were decorated with large, yellow and white chrysanthemums.

DINNER

Mrs. William Landwehr was hostess at a chicken dinner last Wednesday, Nov. 10. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ed Griese. The guests were Mrs. E. J. Hoffman of Wilmette, Mrs. C. Alsip of Evanston, Mrs. A. Therrien, Mrs. Emily Bartelme, and Mrs. Emily Therrien. A pleasant time is reported and a delicious dinner enjoyed by all. It was Mrs. Alsip's wedding anniversary, and the table was beautifully decorated in her honor.

500 CLUB

Mrs. Minnie Meintzer entertained the 500 Club at a delicious one o'clock luncheon, after which the members played cards. Mrs. L. Nessler won first prize, Mrs. Lena Mueller second and Mrs. Hattie Meier received consolation. Mrs. Arthur Therrien will entertain next month.

We are glad to report that P. L. Hays's brother is back at the meat block after being absent for several days on account of a bad sick spell.

Miss Flora Lane has been absent for several days on account of a bad cold.

CARNEGIE MEDAL

Several of the high school students and Mr. R. S. Sandwick, principal went to Chicago to try to obtain a Carnegie medal for Mr. Dean, the hero bus driver. The students instrumental to this purpose are Alice Landwehr, Marjorie Schick, Charles Therrien and William Lutz, all of Northbrook and witnesses of the accident.

MR. OTTO HESSE

We are sorry to report the sudden passing away of our friend, neighbor and church trustee, Mr. Otto Hesse, after only a short illness. He was called to his heavenly home on Saturday morning, November 13. He leaves to mourn him his beloved wife, Anna G., his children, Lester, Lucille Van Sinden, Marion Newbert of Montana, his niece Monica Grothaus of Ohio, and many friends. He was a trustee of the Presbyterian church for the past year and a faithful member. Although he and his family have lived here only a short time, he was respected by many. A short service was read by Rev. Umbach at his home on Tuesday, Nov. 16, after which the funeral cortege went to the Presbyterian church of which he was a member. The members of the Ladies' Aid carried the beautiful floral tributes, where Rev. Umbach officiated, thence to Memorial Park cemetery, where he was laid to rest amid the beautiful flowers. The constant stream of visitors who called and the numerous floral tokens told of the friendship of many who knew him. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

BRIDGE AND LUNCH

Mrs. Frank Meier had as guests last Friday to help enjoy the pretty cake she had won, Mesdames G. Schick, Lorenz and Teschner. Bridge was played and Mrs. Martha Lorenz was the lucky winner of the prize. Coffee and cake was enjoyed after a pleasant time is reported.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Martha Lorenz entertained the Bridge Club last Thursday at one o'clock luncheon after which cards were played. Members present were: Mrs. J. P. O'Connell of Highland Park, Mrs. Altman of Chicago, Mrs. Saltau of Chicago, Mrs. Frank Meier, Mrs. George Schick, Mrs. Henry Pfingsten, Mrs. Richard Teschner and Miss Anna Nielsen. The prize winners were Mesdames Teschner, Meier and Pfingsten. A very pleasant time is reported.

NEEDLE CLUB

Mrs. J. P. O'Connell entertained at her home in Highland Park members of the Needle club on last Tuesday. Members present were: Mesdames Bartelme, Therrien, Schick, Nielsen, Teschner and Meilman. A delicious lunch was served at 4 o'clock, and a happy time was had by all.

BIG HUNTERS GET LITTLE GAME

Mr. Alfred Rohr and his pal, Artie Therrien, went hunting, both had guns and lots of ammunition, but when the game saw them they would run away, so the two hunters decided to go home, and get some more salt, so that in case they would get close enough they would put some on the pheasants' tail, and there be able to get them.

BRIDGE AT HOTEL

Mesdames R. Teschner, G. Schick, Frank Meier, and Johnson attended the Bridge Party at the Edgewater Beach Hotel on November 11. Mrs. Schick won the prize at her table. A most delicious and artistically decorated birthday cake was won by Mrs. Frank Meier. A delightful time is reported.

Mesdames Schick, Teschner and Altman attended the party given by the Eastern Star at the Capitol building in the evening.

KITCHEN PARTY

Mrs. Dalberg was hostess at a kitchen party last Friday, when the club aluminumware company demonstrated their ware. The guests were Mesdames Weiss, Klug, Lutz, Ballweber, Childs, Oles, W. Meier, and Bothe. An interesting and pleasant time is reported. Mesdames Weiss will be the next hostess on Tuesday.

FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meier were the host and hostess at a family reunion of their children and grand children at a "duck and goose dinner," last Sunday, Nov. 14. The E. Moore family, Charles Meier family of Wilmette, Frank Meier family and Miss Lillian Ballweber as guests. A pleasant time is reported, and a delicious supper was enjoyed in the evening.

Fourth and Fifth Grades

The fourth grade children are dramatizing the "Story of the first Thanksgiving" taken from the Elson Fourth reader. For English on Tuesday the fifth grade wrote stories of the Pilgrims, why they left England, why they were not satisfied in Holland, and of their eventful trip to the new land, America.

Contato

Final rehearsals are being given for the cantata, "Childhood of Hiawatha," which has a chorus of forty children. It will be presented at the annual achievement meeting Friday evening, Nov. 19. The cast is as follows: Hiawatha, Harold Meintzer; Nokomis, Ida Arquilla; Iagoo, Hilbert Gehrk; Fireflies, Wilma Melzer and Grace Meier; Rainbow Solo, Myrtle Meier; Duet, Anna Ritter and Sophie Nickelsen; Rainbow dance, Ethel Paul; and chorus of 40 voices.

Arthur Nickelsen brought a pheasant to school on Tuesday, to add to our museum. Last week Florence Kodym brought a barn owl.

The owl, squirrel and some of the birds will be in the forest scene of Hiawatha.

Address "An Unofficial Observer in Europe." Dr. Ralph Dennis, Dean of Northwestern University School of Speech.

Bensenville to Have Community Tree At Christmas Time

The report of the finance committee at the last meeting of the Boosters Club showed over $50.00 clear made at the last dance with several members having tickets to sell not having turned in their receipts. The club is going along nicely financially and all it needs now is a little better attendance at its meetings. At the meeting Monday night it was voted to have a Community Christmas tree as we did last year in Bensenville. All clubs and lodges in Bensenville have been or will be invited to take an active part in the work, expense and program. The tree will be placed on the village lot near the village hall and the program will be rendered at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 23. This date were Mesdames Weiss, Klug, Lutz, Ballweber, Childs, Oles, W. Meier, and Bothe. An interesting and pleasant time is reported. Mesdames Weiss will be the next hostess on Tuesday.

FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meier were the host and hostess at a family reunion of their children and grand children at a "duck and goose dinner," last Sunday, Nov. 14. The E. Moore family, Charles Meier family of Wilmette, Frank Meier family and Miss Lillian Ballweber as guests. A pleasant time is reported, and a delicious supper was enjoyed in the evening.

Fourth and Fifth Grades

The fourth grade children are dramatizing the "Story of the first Thanksgiving" taken from the Elson Fourth reader. For English on Tuesday the fifth grade wrote stories of the Pilgrims, why they left England, why they were not satisfied in Holland, and of their eventful trip to the new land, America.

Contato

Final rehearsals are being given for the cantata, "Childhood of Hiawatha," which has a chorus of forty children. It will be presented at the annual achievement meeting Friday evening, Nov. 19. The cast is as follows: Hiawatha, Harold Meintzer; Nokomis, Ida Arquilla; Iagoo, Hilbert Gehrk; Fireflies, Wilma Melzer and Grace Meier; Rainbow Solo, Myrtle Meier; Duet, Anna Ritter and Sophie Nickelsen; Rainbow dance, Ethel Paul; and chorus of 40 voices.

Arthur Nickelsen brought a pheasant to school on Tuesday, to add to our museum. Last week Florence Kodym brought a barn owl.

The owl, squirrel and some of the birds will be in the forest scene of Hiawatha.

Address "An Unofficial Observer in Europe." Dr. Ralph Dennis, Dean of Northwestern University School of Speech.

Bensenville to Have Community Tree At Christmas Time

The report of the finance committee at the last meeting of the Boosters Club showed over $50.00 clear made at the last dance with several members having tickets to sell not having turned in their receipts. The club is going along nicely financially and all it needs now is a little better attendance at its meetings. At the meeting Monday night it was voted to have a Community Christmas tree as we did last year in Bensenville. All clubs and lodges in Bensenville have been or will be invited to take an active part in the work, expense and program. The tree will be placed on the village lot near the village hall and the program will be rendered at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 23. This date was chosen so as not to conflict with any arrangements that the churches may have under way for Christmas Eve. The Christmas tree last year was something to be remembered and now with more active lodges and clubs in town we should make the event this year something never to be forgotten. Get in touch with the finance committee and help them do it.

Regional Director Compliments P. T. A. of Bensenville

250 people attended the meeting of the Bensenville Parent Teachers Association held in the Assembly hall of Bensenville School Thursday evening, Nov. 11. The outstanding feature of the program was the address given by Mrs. Frederick L. Holch, of Glen Elly, the Regional Director of District No. 2. She spoke of the effective work done by the P. T. A. how of the remarkable growth of the association throughout the whole country. She was both surprised and delighted to find so large an audience in Bensenville. She assured us that there are few places in the state where so keen an interest is taken in the work of the P. T. A. She particularly congratulated Bensenville for having so many men in the meeting and in the active work of the association.

Other important features of the evening were the report of president, Mrs. Wm. Peck, our delegate to the district convention recently held at Aurora, and the presentation of a picture, "The Home of the Heron," to the class having the greatest number of parents in attendance at the meeting. The pupils of the fifth grade won the picture this month and it will adorn the wall of their room until some other class is able to secure a higher percentage than they at some future meeting. At the end of the year the picture will go to the class having won it the greatest number of times during the year. This class will then take it with them as they advance through the grades from year to year until they finish their course. It will then be permanently hung in the room occupied by the class when they first won it. This beautiful picture, artistically framed, is a real work of art and the class that wins it may justly feel proud of their prize.

Despite the encouraging growth of our local association there are still a number of parents in our school district who have not yet availed themselves of the privilege of membership in that association. We feel that every parent in Bensenville owes it to his children to enroll as an active member of the P. T. A. We wait to greet you.

Bensenville Defeats Wheaton Reds

Bensenville football team traveled to Wheaton Sunday and defeated the Wheaton Reds by the score of 3 to 0 on a muddy field in a hard fought battle. Its only score of the game was made by Weiser the Bensenville brilliant quarterback by a pretty 30 yard drop kick.

The game was played during a steady downpour and that made the time snafshing very hard both teams were evenly matched and that game sure was one of the best games ever played at Wheaton. The Bensenville boys sure play real football throughout the game the only injury that Bensenville had was Bob Stellman the star guard of the team with a wrenched knee in the last quarter. All the other boys play still football and deserve a lot of credit. The boys have played and defeated some of the best team in DuPage Co. They will travel to Lombard next Sunday. Come out you Bensenville and root for your boys for they sure deserve lots of support for the splendid showing.

The line-up for the Wheaton game: Kulston, lg; V. Stellman, Bauer, lt; W. Stellman, lg; Whitford, c; Jepson, rg; Black, rt; Black, Smotherman, re; Weiser qb; Beirlein, lb; Hill, rh; Collin, Wright, fb.

HARTMAN-BENHART

A pretty wedding took place in the St. John's Ev. Lutheran church at Rodenberg, Nov. 14 when Miss Minnie Hartman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hartman became the bride of Elmer F. Benhart son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Benhart of Itasca. H. E. Albrecht presided at the organ and played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party proceeded down the aisle. Rev. R. Seils read the marriage service.

The bride's sister, Miss Hilda Hartman was maid of honor while Miss Mildred Weise cousin of the groom was bridesmaid. Edmund Wede cousin of the groom was best man and Albert Hartman brother of the bride usher. Dorothy Wede cousin of the groom and Norma Grene niece of the bride were flower girls.

The bride was most charmingly dressed in a gown of white beaded satin. Her veil was cap style prettily set with pearls. Her bouquet was comprised of white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Hartman wore a dress of orchid georgette and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Weise wore a dress of blue georgette and carried a bouquet of roses. The flower girls were dressed in pink georgette and carried baskets of flowers.

Immediately following the service there was a reception for immediate relatives and friends of the bride couple at the home of the bride's parents. The house was beautifully decorated. The bridal couple received many beautiful gifts. The guests left at a late hour wishing them a happy wedded life.

They will reside in Itasca, where the groom has built a new home.

was chosen so as not to conflict with any arrangements that the churches may have under way for Christmas Eve. The Christmas tree last year was something to be remembered and now with more active lodges and clubs in town we should make the event this year something never to be forgotten. Get in touch with the finance committee and help them do it.

We Are Boosting Not Knocking

The article last week on the village needing a postoffice met with just a little criticism by readers who thought we were trying to knock instead of boost Bensenville. The article was never intended as a knock and we see no reason for any one taking it that way. If your banker were asked to participate in a part of some building in town and use it for his banking business do you think he would care to give it a thought? Certainly not and neither should he. The postoffice is a part of Uncle Sam's banking business and deserves not only a separate building but is entitled to just as secure a building as our banks. Look at the subject in this light then ask your present postmaster, your postmaster who has served in this office so many, many years, and your banker if we are not right. We are for boosting Bensenville and believe the government will see our needs more if approached on the matter and Bensenville have a postoffice that will show visitors that we are progressing and not standing still.

Bensenville Now on Paved Road Map

York Street was officially opened for use Nov. 11 and tourists desiring to drive through Chicago's liveliest suburb can now do so without fear of having to be pulled out of the mud. And speaking of speeding, well don't take our word for it, just stand on the corner of York street and Green avenue any day and see 'em buzzing by. One good thing deserves another; we have the speed way, now for an officer to protect our drivers and those who may drive through Bensenville. Now it is up to DuPage county to pave that 2 mile gap between Irving Park Blvd and the Cook county line. Then we'll have a direct paved road from Northern Illinois to Springfield. But the Black sea must first be drained. Water was 6 or 8 inches over the pikes Monday night. If that land was drained it would yield big crops. But now it isn't fit for fish or ducks, only a swamp and public nuisance to breed pests and varmints.

Special Meeting at Community Church

Rev. Honeywell, pastor of Roselle Community Church, conducted a special meeting at the church Sunday evening. The local minister's father, Rev. John Honeywell of Oak Park, gave the address which was greatly enjoyed by the assembled parishioners. Mr. Howard Hanks, pianist of Chicago, gave a short recital and Mrs. Charles Brendell of Roselle, rendered several vocal selections. A meeting of this type is to be a monthly event in the Community church.

American Luther League Banquet

The A. L. L. banquet in the hall of the new Lutheran school was held Saturday at 6:30 p. m. Sixty members and their friends attended. Several members gave short talks, and all of the diners engaged in community singing. After the four course dinner, Messrs. Edwin Gieseke and Louis Haberkamp gave a short comic dialogue, and Miss Grace Benhart, of Meinhart, and Edwin Troyke gave readings. Music during the banquet was furnished by a local orchestra directed by Mr. F. W. Kobusch of Bloomington.

Edna Fick Becomes Bride of W. Karnatz

A very beautiful wedding took place Saturday, November 13, at 4 o'clock in the Evangelical Lutheran Bethel church of River Grove when Miss Edna Fick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fick Jr., became the bride of Mr. Walter Karnatz.

Teacher H. Ahrens played the ever popular wedding march, and as the mellow strains of Lohengrin's floated throughout the church the bridal party entered.

The first were the groomsmen, one by one, Mr. Charles Karnatz, of Forest Glen, cousin of the groom; Mr. Walter Hamann of Franklin Park, uncle of the bride, and Mr. George Fick of Chicago, cousin of the bride.

Then came the bridesmaids. The first, Miss Esther Karnatz of Forest Glen, sister of the groom, who was dressed in a pretty gown of orchid georgette; Miss Bernice Fick of Chicago, cousin of the bride in a dress of yellow georgette; Miss Edith Karnatz of Forest Glen, cousin of the groom, who wore a lovely dress of pink georgette and Miss Alvina Karnatz of Forest Glen, also a sister of the groom who acted as maid of honor. She wore a lovely dress of gas light green georgette trimmed with silver.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids all wore head bands to match their dresses, and all had bouquets of Killarney roses tied with chiffon ribbon.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. At the same time from the side door entered the groom, Mr. Walter Karnatz of Forest Glen and the best man, Mr. Wm. Fick of Fairview, brother of the bride.

The bride was very beautiful in a gown of white georgette over satin, which was trimmed with silver beads and a rhinestone buckle at the belt. Her veil was in an effect and was trimmed with rhinestones. She carried a very beautiful bouquet of bride's roses with a huge shower of chiffon ribbon and lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was tied with a chiffon bow and streamers.

The bride and the groom met at the altar, which was very beautifully decorated, where the Rev. W. H. Lippman pastor of that church united the couple in marriage. After the ceremony and upon leaving the church, the couple were most heartily showered with rice. After a trip to the photographer the bridal party went to the hall at 4954 Lawrence Ave., where a delicious wedding supper was served to about 200 guests.

Mr. Archie Molay and his orchestra furnished the music until 2 o'clock p. m., after that Mr. Ed. Utes played the concertina until the wee hours in the morning. The guests left in the early hours of Sunday morning all wishing the newlyweds a happy future. Some of the guests returned again in the following afternoon. A hot supper again was served, which everyone enjoyed.

The bride and groom received many beautiful gifts for their new home, which will be at 5900 Leander Ave., Forest Glen.

Schiller Park Has Champion Team

We had a very interesting football game Sunday, Nov. 7, at Schiller Park.

Schiller Park All Stars, vs. Arlington Heights A. B. C. Score: Schiller Park All Stars 42; Arlington Heights A. B. C. 0. Line-up as follows: L. Johnson, lg; D. Drummond, lt; G. Plier, lg; H. Gary, c; F. Penna, rg; J. Meger, rt; T. Bistry, re; J. Demmer, rh; E. Sweda, lb; T. Schalkowski, fb; A. Schalkowski, captain, qb. Subs B. Olson, B. Simpson, A. Koby and J. Banic.

Record of Schiller Park All Stars. Bensenville 0 Schiller Park 0 Arlington Heights 0 Schiller Park 13 Forest Park 6 Schiller Park 6 Arlington Heights 0 Schiller Park 42

The Schiller Park All Star team challenges any team of 160 lbs. Take notice, Bensenville especially.

You can shop by mail if you order a subscription to your local paper sent to your friends.

NOTICE OF AWARD OF CONTRACT

OFFICE OF BOARD OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS, VILLAGE OF GLENVIEW

Glenview, Illinois, November 17, 1926.

Public Notice is hereby given pursuant to statute that a contract for the following improvement has been awarded:

Special Assessment No. 34 Cast iron water supply main with all necessary cast iron valves, brick valve basins, hydrants with auxiliary valves and cast iron boxes, to be located in the following streets to-wit:

GLENVIEW ROAD from the end of the existing main 390 feet east of the west line of Drake Road, to the proposed main in the First North and South Unnamed Street East of Wagner Road.

LENNOX ROAD from the proposed main in Glenview road to the proposed main in Golfview Road.

SURREY LANE from the proposed main in Central Street to the proposed main in Golfview Road.

WINDSOR ROAD from the proposed main in Central Street to the proposed main in Golfview Road.

WAGNER ROAD from the proposed main in Central Street to a point 160 feet north of the north line of Golfview Road.

FIRST NORTH AND SOUTH UNNAMED STREET East of Wagner Road, from the proposed main in Central Street to the proposed main in Glenview Road.

GOLFVIEW ROAD from a point 165 feet west of Lennox Road to the proposed main in Wagner Road.

CENTRAL STREET from the proposed main in Surrey Lane to the proposed main in the First North and South Unnamed Street east of Wagner Road, to the MERKLE CONSTRUCTION COMPANY.

Amount of bid upon which contract is awarded is the sum of $42,912.50.

BOARD OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS,

By: H. C. McCULEN, Pres.

ATTEST: L. W. COONS, Sec.

Phone Glenview 69

MUSIC --- DANCING

BANQUET ROOMS

Koehne's Tavern

Excellent Chicken and Steak Dinners

Waukegan Road
Glenview, Illinois

Detroit Jewel Stoves

THE STOVE WITH THE WONDERFUL BAKING REPUTATION

You will be surprised to learn at what extremely low prices we are able to sell these Stoves. Over two styles to choose from.

Come in to see us before buying your Gas Stove. We can Save You Money.

Glenview Plumbing and Heating Company

PHONE GLENVIEW 124
On Waukegan Road, North of Glenview Avenue

Teaming Work Landscaping

PHONE GLENVIEW 99-R

George Frake, Sr.

Sand, Gravel and Screenings

GLENVIEW, ILL.

Garden Work Excavating

When Others Fail
Try—

RUGEN

CO-OPERATIVE STORES

"For over Forty Years in the Same Locality"

A Satisfied Customer is Our Best Advertisement

GLENVIEW, ILL. NORTHBROOK, ILL.

1 and 2 PHONES— 15

Announcing

THE OPENING FOR

YOUR

Ford Service

at Our New Garage on South Evergreen Street,

Followed By

Grand Opening

Dec. 1, 1926

A. F. WETTERMAN,

Phone 33 Arlington Heights